Creatures That Weep.
Among the creatures that weep most easily are the ruminants. All hunters know that the stag weeps, and it is asserted that the bear sheds tears when severely wounded. The giraffe is not less sensitive and regards with tearful eyes the hunter who has wounded it.

COST HIM MORE THAN FIFTY

Mr. Travers Had Not Properly Estimated His Losses on That Little Fistic Encounter.

"I can't afford to lose $50 on a prize fight," mourned Gelatine Travers an hour or so after the shock he received over the wires that fatal Friday afternoon. "But you have lost it, haven't you?" we asked, and he nodded disconsolately as he climbed aboard a homebound car. He must have felt a premonition as he mourned, for it is unlike Mr. Travers to regret his losses; and when he arrived home he broke the news to Mrs. Travers, along with the implied suggestion that a little economy for the next few weeks would not come in amiss. Mrs. Travers said nothing in her most sympathetic manner, and the evening's conversation covered topics wholly foreign to prize fights. At the breakfast table next morning Mr. Travers had no taste for anything the morning paper might have to say, and Mrs. Travers gained possession of it without the usual contest. Glancing through the paper rapidly Mrs. Travers tore out a square section from page 2, and another from page 11. Then at one of those unexpected moments every woman knows breakfast is replete with, said: "So you could lose $50 on a prize fight. Well, well. Here is a sale I have been awaiting for a long time. And strange to say, here is another just across the street—one is on suits and the other on gowns. And the strangest of all, we happen to have accounts at both those stores. Fifty dollars, you say, you lost? Was it an even fifty?" And so it was that the breakfast dishes at the Travers' home went unwashed Saturday morning because Mrs. Travers was obliged to catch an early jitney downtown and commence operations.—Kansas City Star.

WILLING TO BE PUT WISE

Private Ready to Absorb Any Information Brigadier General Was Able to Impart.

In all the armies in the war discipline was lax in the air service. Army men are at a loss to account for it, but without exception laxity was evident in all the air camps. The San Francisco Chronicle tells the following experience told by Brig. Gen. Benjamin Alvord when the latter was adjutant general of the A. E. F. The general had been sent by General Pershing to make an inspection about Colombey-les-Belles. He walked around without getting the attention the doughboys would show an officer of his rank. No one saluted him and no one noticed him. Once in a while a captain or a major would snap a salute, but not the enlisted men. It rather riled the general, who always scrupulously followed army regulations himself. Finally when a private passed him with a cigar in his mouth, and, although looking right at him, failed to salute, the general thought it was time to call a halt. "Come here, young fellow," he called. "Say, what do you do in this camp when a general officer shows up?" "All right, I'll bite, what is it, old top?" parried the private. "Mrs. Keach Tells How She Got to Know Rat-Snap." "Have always feared rats. Lately noticed many on my farm. A neighbor said he got rid of droves with RAT-SNAP. This started me think-killed 17 and scared the rest away." RAT-SNAP comes in three sizes, 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold and guaranteed by The Ballenger Co., and Carolina Hardware Co.

As Matter of Duty.
It may not be ours to utter convincing arguments, but it may be ours to live holy lives. It may not be ours to be subtle and learned and logical, but it may be ours to be more noble and sweet and pure.—Canon Farrar.

Rainfall.
The average rainfall on the earth is variously estimated at from 30 to 60 inches annually; ranges from 458 inches in Cherracongee, India, to zero in the Sahara desert.

Cold Water as a Purifier.
Fresh cold water is a powerful absorbent of gases, therefore it should be greatly used in a sick room or in one which cannot be frequently ventilated. A bowl of cold water kept in such a room and changed daily is of great assistance in purifying the air.

Finger Saver.
Some one who has realized the danger in touching an electric fan while it is in motion has patented one with a guard equipped with a handle with which to move it.

Two Discredited Prophets.
Among other nineteenth-century false prophets might be mentioned the ex-naval officer, Richard Brothers, who predicted that he would be king of Jerusalem, and Private James White, who founded a religious sect known as the Jezreelites.

Put a Right, Surge.
"A place for everything, and everything in its place," said the surgeon, as he skillfully manipulated a dislocated joint back to where it started from.

universal usefulness

Nowadays many tire makers are urging motorists to use non-skids on rear wheels and smooth-treads or "driving" tires on front wheels.

This is necessary because the sharp projections on some non-skids make steering difficult. Not so with the Michelin Universal. Its tread is so broad and flat, it steers as easily as a smooth tread.

Use Michelin Universals all around. You will thus secure protection against the dangerous front skid as well as against the rear skid; and at the same time you will avoid the necessity of carrying two kinds of spares.

Remember that Michelins are unsurpassed for durability though moderate in price.
