Childhood's Humorists.

Our memory goes back to the time when our idea of the foremost American humorist was a bigger boy named Eddie O'Toole, who skillfully eluding the teacher's eye, took a black lead pencil and changed the name of "The Fairy Revel," a pretty little song in the fourth-grade singing book, to "The Hairy Devel," so neatly that you'd almost have thought it was printed that way originally.—Columbus (Ohio) Journal.

Social Etiquette.

Mrs. Fashionplate—"Poor, dear Mrs. Upperton is to be buried today. Are you going to the funeral?" Mrs. Etta Quet—"I really can't you know. I have just discovered she owed me a call."—Los Angeles Times.

Wickedness Revealed.

Meeker—"Didn't I always give you my salary check the first of every month?" Mrs. Meeker—"Yes; but you never told me that you got paid on the first and fifteenth, you embezzler!"—Judge.

Oddly Put.

An interesting bit of news about a family next door was in the air when Subbubs arrived home. His daughter was the first to speak to him. "Oh, papa," she explained, "I can't guess who was born today!"
