

Wanted It Understood.

In the bygone days when street car fares were 5 cents for grownups and 3 cents for children under 12, two small boys of 12 and 7 mounted the platform. The younger boy had been promised the 2 cents change from the dime they had for carfare. He handed the coin to the conductor, who did not immediately turn over the pennies. The anxious child then remarked politely but forcefully. "I'm worth only 3 cents."—Chicago Tribune.
