Finishing Touches on Road.

The new road on the Appalachian Highway near Saluda is now being covered with sand.

Tax Books Opened.

Sheriff Frank Jackson was in town this week. The tax books for Saluda Township are now open.

Armistice Day.

The Christian Endeavor and Growth League in their joint meeting last Sunday night discussed Peace and Armistice Day.

Birthday Party.

Julian Pace celebrated his sixteenth birthday by giving a party Nov. 5. The guests enjoyed games and delightful refreshments.

Marriage.

Columbus Newman and Maud Stance were happily married Sunday November the seventh at the bride's home. They will make their home near Hidaway school house.

Street Improvement.

There is a piece of work being done on main street that will give pleasure to all people traveling in Saluda. As you leave the station coming up Main St., the street has been leveled and smoothed in such a way as to give satisfaction to all travelers.

Cold Storage Plant Project.

Business men of Spartanburg and Saluda are meeting together this week considering the advisability of erecting a cold storage plant in Saluda. This plant is to be for the apples, cabbage and other crops in winter and to operate as an ice plant during the summer.

Saluda at the Fair in Spartanburg.

Polk County was brought very prominently to the notice of the visitors of the Spartanburg County Fair by the well arranged and creditable displays of apples from The Overbrook and Sanders orchards. Polk County certainly can produce the best when it comes to apples.

New Floor In Church.

The members of the Methodist church complained a great deal this winter of suffering from cold feet during services. So the Ladies Aid took the matter as a result the church now has a double floor and will be comfortable in the winter as well as in summer. The floor is to be a beautiful light color.

Died From Burns.

Ethel Watson daughter of Luther Watson died last Monday morning at three o'clock and was buried Tuesday at Macedonia. Ethel's death was caused by serious burns which she received while mending the fire last Tuesday. Ethel was a well behaved girl and many friends were saddened by her death.

Presiding Elder to Preach.

Presiding Elder Willis will hold quarterly conference of the Tryon and Saluda charges at three-thirty o'clock November 14, in Saluda.

Mr. Willis will fill the pulpit at the methodist church in Saluda at seven thirty Sunday evening. Everybody is invited.

Improvement of Friendship Church.

The interior of Friendship church is undergoing a change.

The walls are being calsomined white. The woodwork is being painted walnut, the seats are also being stained brown. The B. Y. P. U. is thus making the church more attractive. All this is preparatory for a protracted meeting to be held by Rev. A. T. Howard beginning next Sunday November 14th. All are invited to these services.

Civic League Meeting.

The Civic League at Mrs. E. M. Salley's last Monday afternoon. Mrs. Hollister presided and a great deal of interest was manifested in the establishment of the Boys Club. The chairman of the committee appointed at the previous meeting gave a report. It was then decided that there must be finance, house, music entertainment and refreshment committees. The executive committee was instructed to appoint these committees and further aid in the project.

The executive committee is composed of Mesdames De Vere Turner, E. M. Salley, Corwith, Shuler, Misses Wilcox, Nabers and Revs. Cox and Hollister.

Queer, but True.

ORCHARDS

In Polk County will pay if properly cared for

The land on which Overbrook Orchard was planted cost only $10.00 per acre. When orchard was in bearing it brought $250.00 per acre. Today it is for sale at a bargain. There are good buildings, in good repair; all the tools necessary to work it, including new Power Sprayer. It has 1,600 fruit trees in good condition. If you want a fine home and pleasant and profitable work this is the place.

Have another orchard of 2,200 trees in Buncombe county that will make as good orchard as Overbrook within 5 years. Only $8,000.00 on easy terms.
