What's New in Women's Oxfords?

Well, a number of things that make this Winter's Oxfords very different looking from those of recent seasons. The very newest designs combine calfskin with suede, trimmings of suede frequently distinguishing the tip and instep. Very smart effects in plain calfsskin are also featured. Just now when the weather is most suitable for Oxfords you will enjoy choosing from these advance displays.

The above cut represents a patent and taupe suede combination. Very pretty Oxford
