

NOTICE

Having qualified as administrator of the estate of Jasper Henderson, deceased, late of Flat Rock, North Carolina, this is to notify all persons having claims against said estate to file same with me for payment within twelve months from date or this notice will be pleaded in bar of recovery. All persons indebted to said estate will please make immediate payment.

This February 1, 1923.

W. A. HENDESDON,
Administrator.

The people protested when commissioners in eight counties wanted to discontinue home demonstration work and now all but one have decided to support the agents.

We Believe in COLUMBUS

We believe in our "home town."

We believe it is the best town in Polk County in which to live.

We believe it is an ideal town in which to live and transact business.

We believe it is one of the best towns in public spirit and good citizenship.

We believe Columbus is destined for continuously increasing progress and prosperity.

With this spirit, we offer our services to the individuals and business institutions of our town, hoping to advance the industrial, commercial and financial interests of Columbus and Polk County.

A PERSONAL WORD TO YOU FROM MR GOLDBERG

Here's a sale that will rank as the most important event in years. Not only because of the remarkable values, but because it brings a reorganization in this store that is to mean the saving of many dollars to our customers throughout the future.

Since I left Spartanburg several years ago I have been in the manufacturing business in New York City—making women's wear, I have just recently aligned myself with one of New York's finest makers of men's clothes; and future we will manufacture our own suits and overcoats. This will mean a saving to our customers of many dollars on each garment, as they will virtually buy direct from the manufacturer, saving the middleman's profits, commissions, etc.

Mr. Meyerson has recently resigned as manager of this store, and I have secured the services of Mr. L. B. Weiss, of New York, as his successor. I am therefore launching this sale now with a three-fold purpose in view—a thorough reorganization of the entire store—to introduce our new manager, and make room for goods of our own manufacture for spring business.

Such well-known makes of clothing as Fashion Park and Society Brand form our stock, and the radically reduced prices should be an incentive to every man to buy now—especially so in view of the increasing wool market and the resultant higher prices of clothes for spring.

The same sincere desire to serve our customers well and to supply them with the highest quality goods at the lowest prices that has governed this store in the past will be lived up to in the future.

Very truly, ABE GOLDBERG.
