

Killed By Train

Just as we go to press, we learn that Mrs. Annie Stewart Missildine, mother of our friend Mr. E. E. Missildine, was struck by a freight train and killed.

From what we could learn, she was walking along the railroad track and was struck by a south bound freight train. It occurred about 3:30 p. m., but identification was not made until about five o'clock.

The sympathy of the entire community is with the bereaved family.
