TO COTTON GROWERS OF POLK COUNTY.

The Division of Entomology at our State College of Agriculture are desirous to help every cotton grower possible to combat the boll weevil and help him grow cotton in spite of the weevil; but in order that they may be of benefit; The Division must know the address of all farmers who expect to use the dust poison with some kind of dust machine. Any farmer desiring such aid can write Mr. Franklin Sherman, State Entomologist Raleigh N. C., or see me or drop me a postal card saying you desire to use arsenate dust and desire information.

Respectfully, J. R. SAMS,
County Agent.
