

GOLDBERG'S Easter Fashions in MEN'S WEAR

A Store Literally Filled
With clothes that win the instant favor of men who are good dressers and who like economy.

Our new manager and buyer, Mr. L. B. Weiss, is just back from an extensive tour of the clothing markets and following on the heels of his return comes the finest and most desirable selection of Suits and Furnishings ever exhibited by this or any other Spartan store.

Mr. Weiss' long residence in New York City places him in touch with the leading clothing manufacturers and acquaints him with the spots where the greatest values may be obtained. For Spring and Easter we have assembled clothing of such distinctive styling and tailoring and of such fabrics as to win the favor of all good dressers and the prices make them really remarkable values.

Men's and Young Men's 2 PANTS SUITS

Plain, conservative, sporty and snappy models. Solid colors, pin stripes, plaids, checks, etc. Careful buying enables us to feature suits with an extra pair of trousers at

$25,                      $30,                      $35

That are worth much more than the price asked.

GET PLENTY OF NEW SHIRTS

MEN'S NEW SPRING

SHIRTS

HATS

For Spring and the approaching coatless days

All nationally known quality hats in colors or shapes to suit you and all moderately priced.

And here are styles that coincide exactly with what you want and expect from the Shirts you wear.

SPRING AND SUMMER

Wearpledge Insured Boys Suits,
With 2 Pairs of Pants

NECKWEAR

Beautiful Ties of finest silks, in all newest styles and colors.

GOLDBERG'S

"SUITS ME"

On the Square

Spartanburg, S. C.

Mill Spring

Pastor Freeman filled his regular appointment at Bethlehem Sunday P. M.

The Epworth League and B. Y. P. U. meet at their respective churches Sunday after preaching.

Rev. Freeman is finishing the school here, taking the principal's place.

The Community Club meets Wednesday night.

Miss Esther Gibbs entertained a few friends Saturday night, in honor of Miss Lala Hines, Miss Myrtle Sheilds, and Miss Mary Jones of Green's Creek, who came home with her for the week end.

Rev. Stroupe will fill his appointment at the Baptist church Easter. Lets give him a large crowd.

All minds are turned to County Commencement. Nannie Walker and George Gibbs will represent us in the Recitation and Declamation contest, in the township preliminary. Will Egerton and Jennie Barber in the spelling contest. Parents, help us make our part a success.

April will soon be here, but the farmers seem to be getting slow with their work in this section.

The two Sunday School's Baptist will meet in front of the school building at 2:00 o'clock p. m. for an egg hunt.

Mrs. J. C. Walker is on the sick list. We hope she will soon recover.

The B. Y. P. U. of Columbus will render a program for the Mill Spring Union April 1st.

Miss Mattie Lee Edwards spent the day with Miss Lona Bell Smith Sunday last.

Mrs. Lynn Waldrop and Miss Mary Bishop were in Landrum shopping Saturday.

Several young people went flower gathering Sunday afternoon.

"Hurrah" for our County Commencement. Let's make it a success.

Rev. M. E. Summey of Pickens, S. C., and J. H. McCalster of Catechee, S. C. are holding a revival meeting near mercering plant. Have been there one week, and are having good success. The people of Tryon and vicinity are invited to these services.

The Lou Monk Chapter O. E. S. of Campobello will present the play, "The Star of the East" in the Landrum School Auditorium Friday evening at eight o'clock. Admission 15 and 35 cents. To better enjoy the play you are requested to read the Book of Esther.

No matter how smart the other fellow is he doesn't know as much as you do about where your shoe pinches;