BURIED 11 YEARS IN PRISON

Vale Honor Student, Just Freed in Germany, Is Human Wreck, His Mind Affected.

Paris, France.-John Gurchison, former Yale student, who has been buried roughle world for 11 years in a German prison at Heldelberg, has arrived in Paris, an absolute human wreck.

The American Aid society in Paris has placed him in a private nursing home in the suburbs, but he is in such a nervous condition that he attempted suicide twice in a few days. American physicians pronounce him sane, but his terrible memories prevent him from sleeping. He acts like a man with delirium tremens and his memory is al-

Gurchison worked his way through year and won a scholarship at Heldelbers.

Soon after arriving there he killed a German student in a duel and was sentenced to five years in prison. Six rears added to his sentence for attempting to escape. Apparently no mends tried to obtain his release.

Gurchison did not know anything the World war until released and can scarcely grasp the fact. He has hen in solitary confinement for 11 rears and his body is full of scars indicted by the wardens. His age is gren as twenty-nine years. The Amercan embassy is attempting through the German embassy to clear up the
