Commencing June 1st
Kilpin Motor Co.

wish to announce the taking over of the stock and good will of the Ballenger-Morris Motor Co.

including the Ford Agency and Tryon Filling Station; and further the new management has to assure the public that the re-organization has been perfected with the sole view of rendering efficient service to all, and in this connection we are pleased to announce that Mr. P. G. Morris has been retained to take entire charge of the New and Used Car Sales Department. Mr. Ed Sample has been appointed Stock Clerk in charge of Ford Parts and Accessories, and the Mechanical Department will have the personal supervision of the management.

It is planned from time to time and as conditions warrant to install services which are only found in the largest cities, the best wrecking service in the mountains, plans for which are to be pushed right ahead, augmentation of mechanical force, free road service for tires and batteries, a Simonizing, Auto Body Painting and Trimming department are all for the future, so watch our ads.

Meeting the Needs of a Greater Polk County

Capital increased to $25,000.00 fully paid.

Surplus and undivided profits over $7,000.00.

Total resources over a quarter million.

Polk county citizens are justly proud of this fast growing institution, now the foremost bank in this section.

All this has come before our sixth birthday.

Polk county needs a million dollar bank to develop its resources. With your support we will reach that goal. Send your friends to us. We will take care of them. We have the facilities and know how to use them. Our desire and aim is to aid each individual customer to better his financial condition; "doctors of finance," as it were. Consult us often whether a customer or not. you will find sympathetic counsel. Five officers in the bank to serve you.

We have connections with some of the largest banks in the country, giving us facilities to handle most all financial propositions.

We are also prepared to handle fiduciary matters. We act as guardian, trustee, administrator, executor, etc. Consult with us about making your will

We have safe deposit boxes, in a special vault, to rent at $2.00 per annum.

Rest room for the ladies. Writing room for the public. Make good use of these. When in Tryon meet your friends at The Peoples, a bank of by and for the people.

No loans are made by this bank to any of its officers or directors.
