TO THE PUBLIC:

For over 35 years I have made my living by selling reliable merchandise at fair prices. We never knowingly misrepresent merchandise in our store or in our advertising. It would cost too much to advertise all the things we are giving you reduced prices on during the Merchants' Trade Event.

If you are offered bigger reductions than we are giving—the goods were marked with bigger profits to begin with.

Of course we want to sell you if we can please you, but if we cannot, take the list of 36 merchants who made it possible to have the Trade Event, and buy from them. These 36 merchants are working for Spartanburg. They will save you money on your purchases, besides the other inducements they give you to trade with them during Trade Week.
