SUFFERED FOR TEN LONG YEARS

Tanlac Now Bringing Strength Back by Leaps and Bounds, Declares Miss Castles.

"After suffering for ten years, Tanlac is fast relieving my troubles, and I feel so grateful I just want to tell everybody about it," recently declared Miss Bessie Castles, of Gastonia, N. C.

"People who have never suffered from stomach trouble and nervousness don't know how thankful they should be. Why, my food disagreed with me so much I often went for two days without eating. My nerves most drove me distracted and while I always felt sleepy, I could never get any real rest and I felt so weak sometimes I could hardly move.

"Well, I've taken three bottles of the Tanlac treatment so far and my digestion is just perfect and I'm eating everything. My nerves are ever so much better, too, and my strength is coming back by leaps and bounds. Tanlac is the grandest medicine I've ever seen."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Take no substitute. Over 37 million bottles sold.

DISCOVERY CAME TOO LATE

Mrs. Garker Had Already Committed Social Error Which Was Extremely Hard to Explain.

Mrs. Garker came home from a call one day in such a disturbed condition that it was evident tears were not far in the background. She lost no time in beginning her explanation.

"Edward," she said to her husband, "I am so mortified. I don't know what to do."

"What's the matter, Janp?"

"I've just been calling on Mrs. Peters. You know her husband, Marshall?"

"Yes."

"Well, I just learned today that Marshall is not his title at all. Marshall is his first name."

"Why, certainly. I've always known that. What is there so mortifying about it?"

"Nothing," said Mrs. Garker, with a groan, "only I've been calling him 'Marshall' every time I've met him for months and months."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Important to All Women Readers of This Paper

Thousands upon thousands of women have kidney or bladder trouble and never suspect it.

Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease.

If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased.

You may suffer pain in the back, headache and loss of ambition.

Poor health makes you nervous, irritable and maybe despondent; it makes any one so.

But hundreds of women claim that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, by restoring health to the kidneys, proved to be just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions.

Many send for a sample bottle to see what Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder medicine, will do for them. By enclosing ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., you may receive sample size bottle by parcel post. You can purchase medium and large size bottles at all drug stores.—Advertisement.

Selection of Breed for Good Flock of Sheep

In establishing a flock of sheep for the farm there are many advantages in the farmers of a community selecting the same breed. One important advantage is in changing rams so as to avoid inbreeding. A farmer with only a few ewes is likely to inbreed or use a poor sire, rather than introduce new blood through the purchase of a good ram. Sheep are divided into three general classes: 1, the fine wools, such as the American Merino, Delaine, and Rambouillet; 2, medium wools, such as the Oxford, Hampshire, Shropshire, Southdown, etc.; 3, the coarse wools, such as the Cotswolds, Leicester and Lincoln.

The first class of fine wools are especially desirable when run in large numbers on the ranges in mountainous regions, as they herd well together, retain the wool well, are well protected by a close fleece, and probably do better than other breeds on coarse or more or less woody vegetation. Of the fine wools, the Rambouillet has the best mutton type and is the largest in size.

The second class, or medium wool sheep, are probably best for non-irrigated sections of the state but do well anywhere, as they are of a distinct meat type, mature early, and furnish a higher percentage of mutton than the fine wools. They are not as large as coarse wool, for the sheep mature earlier. Some of the breeds of this class are rather small, active and well adapted to grazing where the feed is sparse.

The Southdowns are the smallest and mature very early and rapidly, but shear only about six to eight pounds of wool. The Shropshire is the most popular farm sheep in America, giving a well-balanced yield of mutton and wool, and shearing 12 to 14 pounds under farm conditions. Hampshire and Oxford are larger than Shropshires, but are a little slower in maturing. Any one of these breeds will give satisfaction.—Extension Service, Colorado Agricultural College.

Some Reasons Why Hogs Are Popular Farm Animals

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

What is the basis of the hog's popularity, which, in spite of his relatively small size, enables him to stand third in total value among all our domestic animals in the United States? In the first place, of course, he produces toothsome meats which in some form or other combine well with most of our common vegetables, but, according to the Department of Agriculture, there are other reasons why the hog has become a favorite on more than three-fourths of our farms.

The hog converts much of our corn crop, 30 to 40 per cent annually, into a concentrated food, and in this work of concentration he is no waster. He is an efficient user of feed. It takes about six pounds of hay to produce a pound of lamb (live weight), ten pounds of hay and ten pounds of corn to make a pound of beef, and 5.6 pounds of corn for a pound of pork. Hogs are frequently used to "hog down" or harvest crops and in this way they save the labor of harvesting.

In this country pork and lard enter prominently into our food supply. The average annual consumption per capita for the last five years was 67.3 pounds of pork and 12.5 pounds of lard as compared with 600 pounds of beef.

Cut Down Sow's Ration When Little Pigs Scour

When little pigs show symptoms of scouring, cut down the sow's ration immediately. Four ounces of raw linseed oil or fifteen to twenty grains of copperas in the sow's slop will help to correct scours. Thumps in suckling pigs come from too much rich food and not enough exercise. The best remedy is prevention by sufficient exercise.

Corn-cob meal, as feed for young pigs, is far better than pure cornmeal because it is not so concentrated and is more completely digested.

Young pigs are so partial toward green fibrous foods, such as corn silk and tender, stringy vegetable matter generally, that they will eat more of it than they should.

LESSON FOR JUNE 17

ESTHER, THE PATRIOT QUEEN

LESSON TEXT—Esther 4:13-5:3. GOLDEN TEXT—"Who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdom for such a time as this?"—Esther 4:14. PRIMARY TOPIC—Esther, the Brave Queen. JUNIOR TOPIC—What Esther Did for Her People. INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Esther's Heroism. YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—A Study of Patriotism.

I. Esther Made Queen (Chapters 1, 2).

This drama took place in the Persian court, where Ahasuerus (Xerxes) sat upon his throne, surrounded by his princes and servants. Six months of festivity were drawing to a close, arranged by the king in order to impress upon the people of his mighty empire the fact of his greatness. The last days of this feast were marked with drunken debauchery. In a drunken frenzy the king commanded Vashti to come before the people to display her beauty. Vashti showed her independence by refusing to obey. She was instantly deposed. In providing a queen to take her place, the most beautiful maidens in the empire were brought together from whom the king might make a selection. The choice fell upon Esther, a maid of the Jewish captivity. The king did not know that she was a Jewess, but God knew, and He put her there for a purpose.

II. Haman's Plot Against the Jews (Chapter 3).

1. The Occasion of (vv. 1-6). For some reason Haman was given chief place over the princes. Though all bowed before him, Mordecai, Esther's cousin, stoutly refused to do so.

2. Its Nature (vv. 7-15). Haman desired to lay hands upon Mordecai for his insubordination, but hesitated. Instead of such drastic action he laid a plot to destroy all the Jews, and thereby take vengeance on Mordecai, who he learned was a Jew. He made the king believe that the Jews were an unprofitable people and induced him to order their annihilation, promising to bring into the royal treasury an enormous sum of money.

III. Haman's Plot Foiled (4:1-8:14).

1. Fasting Among the Jews (4:1-3). When Mordecai and his people perceived all that was done they put on sackcloth and ashes and cried to God.

2. Mordecai's Charge to Esther (4:4-14). He sent to Esther a copy of the decree and charged her to go before the king and make supplication for her people. Esther pointed out the difficulties in the way. Possible death awaited her should her uninvited presence not meet the approval of the king.

3. Esther's Daring Adventure (4:16-5:2). Mordecai pointed out to her that her own life was endangered. She might meet death by venturing into the king's presence. She would surely meet death were Haman's plot not foiled. When thus brought face to face with duty, the heroism which so frequently has characterized her race moved her to undertake the hazardous task and prayerfully carry it out. After three days of fasting and prayer she put on her royal apparel and stood in the king's court, winning his approval.

4. Esther Pleading for Her People (5:3-7:6). Esther knew that an easy way to the heart of the king was through his stomach, so she invited him and Haman to a banquet. She proposed a second banquet, at which she planned to make her request known. During the interval some strange things took place. A gallows was built upon which to hang Mordecai, at the heartfelt suggestion of Haman's wife. And the king, during a sleepless night, was moved to search the court records, where he found that Mordecai had not been rewarded for saving his life. So, in order to express his appreciation for this act of heroism on the part of Mordecai, he gave orders obliging Haman to do honor to the one he was preparing to hang. At the second banquet Esther pointed out Haman's wicked plot to kill the Jews and asked of the king that her people be saved. In his wrath the king ordered Haman hanged on the gallows which had been prepared for Mordecai.

5. The Court Decree Issued (8:5-14). The original decree could not be reversed, so a counter decree was issued which enabled the Jews to defend themselves. This was dispatched to the furthest parts of the kingdom. At the appointed time there was great slaughter and the Jews were saved. God granted relief and the Feast of Purim was instituted as a memorial of their deliverance.

STYLES IN SPORTS HATS, SUMMER FINERY FOR TOYS

SINCE styles for the street have been so much toned up by those for sports wear it is becoming difficult to distinguish between sports and street hats. But sports hats have a suggestion, at least, of youthfulness and their style is definitely informal—these are the qualities that have caused them to exert such an influence in the tailored mode.

The light-colored felts now flourishing in fashion's smile are trimmed with clever feather ornaments or narrow ribbons made up into set rosettes. Certain dashing models have long quills or brilliant flat birds simulated in small, soft, varicolored feathers. Handmade decorations and fine combinations of light color distinguish the most elaborate sports hats, while the simplest are trimmed with a scarf or kerchief or with a single ornament.

The group of hats pictured is representative of the mode. It begins with a model in which chenille is woven into a favored shape and trimmed with a show of ribbon. Below, at the right, a sand-colored felt shows the crown linen, pongee and even satin trims and waists of fine batiste or of sil fabrics. Of course there is much greater diversity in frocks for girls, the one expects to find in boys' suits—the female of the species begins to be young to find life speeded up with a considerable variety in her clothes, therefore, when she is indulged in two or three dress-up frocks they are such include color as well as white.

swathed with a brilliant kerchief. The fabric hat at the left has a crown made in sections and an ornament fashioned from the material in the hat. A hat of satin finishes the group. It is composed of irregular pieces in contrasting colors and it stitched to simulate quilting.

White linen for the pants and crepe de chine for the waist tell the story of the little boy's party splendor. Pearl buttons, fine in quality, join the two garments and three small ones on the waist must not be overlooked.
