

Henderson, President's Ship, in Alaskan Waters

Here, in Alaskan waters, is the transport Henderson which carried President Harding and his party to the northern territory. He has expressed the desire to have the Henderson take him from San Diego through the Panama canal.

Blind Girls Also Now Enjoy Camp Life

For the first time, sightless girls are this summer enjoying camp life just like the thousands of summer camping girls of normal vision—hiking, swimming, boating, callisthenic drill, even to building the camp fires, doing the dishes and caring for their own beds and clothes. The experiment is being conducted at Camp Munger, near Lake Barnes, in the Palisades Interstate park by the New York Association for the Blind. The girls in the illustration are taking a boat ride before their daily swim.

At Monroe Doctrine Centenary

Mrs. Rose Gouverneur Hoës, great-granddaughter of President Monroe, unveiled the statue of the former president to commemorate the centenary of the Monroe doctrine, at Los Angeles, Cal. Many celebrities, diplomats of Latin American countries and others attended the ceremonies at the Monroe Doctrine Centennial and Motion Picture Industrial exposition.

CARICATURE CURZON

The unfriendly feeling in Russia for the English is illustrated by this caricature of Lord Curzon which led a procession in a recent anti-British demonstration.

MADE WOMAN'S RECORD

Mrs. Bertha A. Horchem of Ransom, Kan., was less excited over the fact that she piloted an airplane higher than the elevation of Mont Blanc, at St. Louis field, to make an official world's record for a woman, than many persons are about their first aerial hop. Mrs. Horchem attained an altitude of 16,300 feet, 400 feet more than three miles. Mont Blanc is 15,781 feet high.

Navy Fliers After Schneider Cup

Here are the American navy's entries in the Schneider Cup race to be run at Cowes, Isle of Wight, England, September 27 and 28. They sail on August 18 on the Leviathan and are taking navy planes with them for the race, a Curtiss racer, a navy Wright and a TR ship. The race, which is for seaplanes, is run in two events, one of landing and taking off from the water and one of ease of riding at anchor, and the other a test for speed over a course of 240 miles. Our entries, left to right, are: R. Irvine, T. W. Wead, D. Rittenhouse and A. W. Gorton, all senior grade lieutenants.

Balloon Helps War on Gypsy Moth

Above is shown a view of the balloon sent to Henniker, N. H., by the Department of Agriculture to aid in the fight on the gypsy moth which has been causing and destroying crops. The balloon rises a hundred feet above the ground and, by means of a series of sprayers, covers the allotted territory with a powder which kills off the moths. Twenty-five pounds of the powder is scattered over one acre in five minutes.

GERMAN BELL OF RHINE

This, the largest bell in the world, regarded as the finest work of art in bellcasting in existence, has just been finished. It is to replace the famous bell of the cathedral of Cologne destroyed during the war by bombardment from the air. The bell was paid for by popular subscription and is called the German bell of the Rhine. It bears the legend: "St. Peter, I have been called to the defense of the German land, born of the German woe, I call all to unity."

IN SOCIETY SOON

Where Mark Twain Was Born

The birthplace of Mark Twain at Florida, Mo., a short time ago was just saved from the wreckers, and moved across the street from its former location. Then the idea of a memorial park for Mark Twain was started. It is well on the way now, and, it is hoped, will soon be presented to the state or nation as a permanent memorial to the great author. The Mark Twain home is a slab-shingled, ill-constructed two-room cottage.

Checks Up "Health by Radio" Talks

When you listen to Leath lectures over the radio telephone, such as, "Do Not Sleep Well," and "How to Feed the Baby," they are checked up for accuracy by Dr. B. J. Lloyd of the United States public health service, who is seen in this photograph indicating on a map the extent of the service known as "Health by Radio."
