

Where Mrs. Warren G. Harding Will Make Her Home

Here is the home of General Sawyer in a western suburb of Marion, O., where Mrs. Harding will take up her abode after leaving the White House.

Tornado Destroys Little Town in Kansas

Thirty-five persons were injured seriously by a tornado that swept down on the little town of ... completely demolished many buildings in the business and residential districts. The photograph shows damage on one of the residence streets.

Veteran Engineer Is Retired

John Reihansperger, a seventy-year-old engineer on the Chicago & North-western railway, affectionately clasped the throttle in a farewell grip, climbed down from his cab, and closed a railroad career that has covered fifty-two years and two months of service and had carried him over 2,000,000 miles of rails and ties. Reihansperger, who was retired on a pension, witnessed the evolution of the modern railroad system from the days when the first locomotive pulled out of Chicago on the old Galena railroad. He started with the Northwestern at the age of fourteen years and during his service spent forty-six years as an engineer. The photograph shows Mr. Reihansperger shaking hands with William Williser, assistant general manager of the road, as he pulled into the depot from his last trip.

REAL CAVE GIRL

Emma Adams, the fifteen-year-old "cave girl" of Kansas, discovered by probation officers of Topeka living with her father and brother in a cave on an island in the Kaw river. The girl was totally unfamiliar with the finery of civilized femininity and told the judge she wished to return to her overalls and go back to the primitive cave life on the island. But she did want to have her hair bobbed, like other girls, and here she is after the barber had worked for an hour over her tangled locks.

SUCCEEDS CHRISTIAN

To the surprise of nearly everyone, President Coolidge appointed Campbell Bascom Slomp, former congressman from Virginia, to be secretary to the President. He is well known in national politics as a southern Republican leader. He succeeds George B. Christian, Jr., who resigned.

Suggests Fine Harding Memorial

William Chester McDonald is seen, strapped to the board on which he has spent his twelve years, holding his most cherished possession—an autographed portrait photograph given him by President Harding when he visited the Children's Seashore Home at Atlantic City, N. J., last June. Now he has proposed to the Philadelphia Sesquicentennial committee that a fund be raised, from the pennies of the children of America and other voluntary subscriptions, to erect a children's building at the exposition and dedicate it to the "lover of children, Warren G. Harding." The proposal has been accepted and Mrs. Winifred Stoner, the author-lecturer, shown in the photograph with little Billy, started the ball rolling with a check for $1,000.

Athletes of Denmark to Visit U. S.

This photograph shows the picked crew of Danish athletes trained by Niels Bukh, who has been invited to bring them to this country by a committee representing the Community service, the Playground and Recreation Association of America, the Russell Sage foundation, the Country Life Association of America and the Teachers' College of Columbia university. Bukh, whose system of physical education has attracted attention all over the world, is seen at the right, behind the color-bearer. These are not professional acrobats or athletes, but boys and girls from the farms of Denmark.

IS SHE MAROONED?

The flapper flag, one of the latest creations for flapperdom, is being used to advantage on the fashionable bathing beach of Newport, R. I. We see Miss Jeannette Ball, one of the beauties who may be found on the beach or in the water most of the day, signaling for "help," which she doesn't seem to need.

TO WELCOME THE LEGION

Here is Miss Myrtle Miller, one of the San Francisco bathing girls who will swim in the aquatic competitions which will form part of the program of the American Legion national convention in San Francisco next October.

Somewhat Stale, but It's Bread

Bakers' strike or no bakers' strike, while the country wonders where its bread is coming from, Dr. J. Walter Fewkes, director of the bureau of American ethnology, Smithsonian institution, sits calmly at his desk and smiles at a good-sized piece of porous substance. The piece of bread is more than 500 years old and was dug out of Indian ruins in the Southwest by Dr. Fewkes.

Smallest Seaplane in the World

The "aerial mosquito," smallest seaplane in the world, built from specifications submitted by the bureau of aeronautics, was put through a series of tests at the naval air station, Anacostia, D. C. The seaplane was built by the Cox-Klemin company of Garden City, Long Island, and is to be used as a scout with submarines. It measures 18 feet over all and weighs 630 pounds.

CALIPH'S DAUGHTER

Princess Durri-Chehvar Sultane, daughter of the Turkish caliph, Abdül Medjid Effendi.

PERSISTENT STOWAWAY

Being determined to get into the United States, Oscar Bigall of Germany stowed away 14 times and each time was turned back by the authorities on his arrival. On the last occasion he was found in the coal bunkers of the S. S. President Fillmore. Unwilling to work his passage, he was placed in the brig and put on a diet of bread and water. He is to be deported again.

Getting Their Anti-Typhus Shots

Maj. Jas. C. Davis of the army medical department giving typhus inoculation at the field hospital of the Citizens' Military Training Camp, Ft. Pittsburg, N. Y.