

Something to Think About.
"Goin' to law," said Uncle Eben, "is mighty apt to be a trip dat don't let you know what you's g'ine or when you'll git back."

Colors Worn by Jockeys.
There are records to show that King Henry VIII as early as 1530 dressed his jockeys in colors, but nothing to prove that the colors were always the same. In 1702 the Jockey club posted a notice to the effect that several owners of racing horses had selected colors to be worn by their jockeys. Some of the colors chosen then are still in use by the same families.

Odd Experience.
The strangest experience of my life was one day while in our orchard. I was sitting under a giant apple tree. Presently I got up and started away. Scarcely had I gone four steps ere a large dead branch fell to the spot where I had been sitting. I did not venture under dead branches again for some time.—Chicago Journal.

Sun Dials.
The sun dial is first mentioned in the Book of Isaiah 38:8, and may have been formed after the plan of a famous sun dial of India in the form of a series of steps. The remains of such a sun dial have been found amid the ruins of Pompeii. The modern sun dial only differs from the primitive ones in that it is more accurately placed and more carefully made.

Women Are All the Same.
It is a funny thing, but while you can divide men into men and artists, women are all the same; they're all artists of a kind and women as well; any woman is better than a mediocre man, but no woman is as good as a clever man.—From "Last Week," by Sam D. Vines.

Attention, Farmers---

This bank cordially invites you to bring, send or mail your checks received for cotton and other farm products to us either for cash or credit. If you are a member of the cotton growers association, bring your warehouse receipts or bill of lading to us and we'll advance the $50.00 per bale and send your papers on to Raleigh (no expense to you.) We are always friendly and ready to serve and to give information for the purpose of furthering the best interest of our farmer friends. Come to see us, let us serve you.

Polk County Bank & Trust Company
Columbus, N. C.

Resources Over $175,000.00

J. R. Sams, Chm. of Board
E. W. S. Cobb, President
Frank Jackson, Vice Pres.
Fred W. Blanton, Vice Pres. and Cash
M. L. Arledge, Ass't. Cashier.

Will Good Eyesight Improve Your Content?

We can furnish you glasses that will strengthen and rest your eyes. Ofttimes when the wearer of glasses secure the proper aid at the proper time he is able to do without them when his eyes become again normal. We are eye authorities.

R. E. Biber
OPTOMETRIST
103 W. Main St.
Spartanburg, S. C.

The Tryon Transfer Company
A long felt need of Tryon and vicinity; Prompt and courteous attention to Baggage, Express and General Hauling.
We Haul
Anything, Anywhere as Cheaply, Quickly and Better
Office 148 Two Phones Residence 31

Scientists have got the hook for the hook worm.

The semi-detached female is the real menace.

Airmen today are trying to put the "cop" in helicopter.

The knee-length skirt is the shorter and uglier word for style.

Keeping up appearances is largely a question of keeping in debt.

The famous anvil chorus doubtless voiced the jazz instincts of its day.

Why should not the censors cut all the stupidity out of the movies, too?

Stop, look, listen, and then learn how deep the water is before you dive.

The "off" in so many soviet leaders' names seems particularly appropriate.

Hitting only the high spots is safer when aviating than it is when motoring.

Radio will reach its maximum of popularity when it starts broadcasting money.

If progress had been left to the knackers man would still be in the stone age.

Judging from the divorces, it appears that self-love is the only love that lasts.

The premier of Poland, who wears no tie, will probably also claim he wears no man's collar.

It's getting to be so only extra beautiful women can kill somebody and hope to escape punishment.

Many a better on the races has been unable to break himself of the habit until he has gone broke.

The young graduate is discovering that among the necessities of life the most important is a living.

"Eat less sugar," says a doctor. The first prescription ever written on which the patient saved money.

The war didn't even settle how properly to pronounce the names of some of those European towns.

Unfortunately the political forecast of an amateur may look as well on paper as the forecast of an expert.

Carpenter's Department Store
Rutherfordton, N. C.

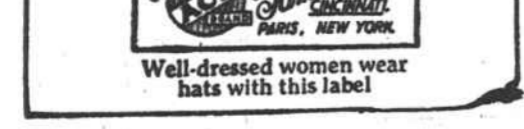

"Distinctive" Millinery

The marked originality of this Parisian model for Fall, with the drooping feather high on the crown, is a hint at the real distinctiveness of the millinery assembled here for this Autumn season.

Here your eye will be delighted by models rich in originality; hats that you can wear with the satisfaction that comes from knowing that your hat has individuality, becomingness and attractiveness.

And you may be sure that every model is new and absolutely correct in design and material.

"Tomorrow's Millinery" is helping thousands of women select the best and most charming things in hats. Are you taking advantage of this FREE fashion Service? Ask us about it.

Well-dressed women wear hats with this label

The careless in street traffic should be careless.

If Europe doesn't soon get right, it will get left.

Germany is a wonderful country. It is still printing marks.

Scrapping warships is better than to have warships scrapping.

A hundred reds in the country are not worth one red sent out of it.

What ever happened to the old-fashioned dime novel that didn't cost $1.75?

Columbus was the first European who encountered difficulty in touching America.

Dress reformers apparently hold that the form divine should not be divivable.

The most useless period in man's life is the week before vacation and the day after.

One trouble about being a "most beautiful" woman is having to live up to the reputation.

Four brakes on the car is all right, but for a certain class of drivers there really should be eight.

Packing autos is real science, says a headline. Nothing, however, compared to parking them.

Sometimes life seems to be just a proposition of finding the kind of trouble you can stand.

A writer says Alaska is a region favored by providence. That's a fact. It once belonged to Russia.

Unfortunately, the joy-riding cars usually kill the wrong people while the joy riders go on "iding."

An economist says music helps in getting the work done. This does not, however, refer to chin music.

It seems that the best way to attract attention at French beach resorts is to wear a modest bathing suit.

Of course insects have brains. How else could they figure out just where you are going to have your picnic?

A huge camera has been constructed to take a picture of the sun. It is feared the proofs will show it moved.

That old proverb about the less haste the more speed doesn't get very far in these days of cross-country fights.

One trouble with these coast-to-coast fights between dawn and sunset is that the coasts are so doggoned far apart.

When a loafer gets down to the point that it is work or starve and he decides to work, he is on the trail to self-respect.

If more law enforcement is the thing most desirable, perhaps it would be well to raise the speed limit to 30 miles an hour.

Another way to avoid work is to organize a propaganda campaign of some kind and find a few rich people who wish to be useful.

The American woman probably will not care two raps about the doctor's statement that too much athletics is making her knock-kneed.

They say that men's clothes need reforming. It is, however, the men that need sufficient independence to wear what is good and comfortable.

Compared with 1922, automobile production has increased, this year, 47 per cent. But where is the pedestrian who can jump 47 per cent farther?

When the millennium shall have arrived, civilization will have reached the point where agriculture will stand as the highest and noblest vocation of all.

The government may call off dawn-to-dusk fights for the rest of the year, but it is doubtful if it will be as successful with some of the dusk-to-dawn high fliers.

Those New York doctors who say that Americans eat too much ice cream are going to be out of luck as far as popularity is concerned, at least until the "heated term" ends.

Prof. McArdle of Harvard has issued a long list of instructions on how to avoid lightning. Meanwhile a lot of politicians are daring the presidential lightning to strike them.

Considering that the government has compiled statistics on everything else, it would be interesting to have some figures on the number of fish caught in proportion to the bait used.

Who says the perils of civilization are not worse than those of the jungle? That Cincinnati hippopotamus never would have died from swallowing a tennis ball if it had been on its native heath.

A Harvard professor presents a long list of what not to do if one would escape being struck by lightning. A copy of the list ought to be in the hands of every aspiring political candidate.

Counterfeit $1,000 bills are in circulation. Have a care!

Fortunately, few of the class prophesies will ever come true.

Almost any system of government will work if the people will.

No strawberry shortcake should be less than three stories high.

Europe doesn't need dictators so much as it needs a guardian.

A great deal depends at the railroad crossing on where you come to a dead stop.

Dollar gasoline would at least relieve the congestion in the emergency wards.

Ice cream prices are up and the price of coal shows no signs of losing strength.

A happy land is one where everybody is so poor that nobody can envy anybody.

Some men take up pipe smoking in order gradually to break off the tobacco habit.

The autolst who swings around a corner on two wheels does himself a bad turn.

If there is any color more hated in this country than Russian red it is parlor pink.

Almost any man can waste a lot of useful time making a garden and still live longer.

Old timers can remember when cedar block pavements were spoken of as "improvements."

Scientist says that violin playing is a hair tonic. Well, a lot of it is undeniably hair-raising.

The treasury plans to abolish the 2-dollar bill. The 5-dollar bill has taken its place of late years.

We take it that no girl who wins the prize in a beauty contest is ever surprised at the verdict.

"Intelligence tests" would undoubtedly be all right if a little intelligence were used in making them.

With the temperature in the Yukon at 120 in the sun sealskin underwear must be very much de trop.

Nobody is more popular than an automobile prospect unless it is a politician with jobs to distribute.

Vesuvius is having a first class eruption, proving that Italy continues to know how to attract sightseers.

Its reappearance on bathing-beaches recalls the fact that the human knee is a pretty tough looking joint.

Some informed student of Chinese history might tell he world where a Chinese government goes when it falls.

An expert says that dishwashing beautifies the hands, but the majority will continue to use their favorite lotion.

Perhaps, after all, the easiest way to save your pride is to tell the kid that you haven't time to help him with his algebra.

It's a serious question whether a white elephant on your hands ever seemed as big as white shoes on your feet.

An artist says an impressive painting can be bought for $100. For that matter, a framed $100 bill would be impressive.

One thing that always can be counted on is that all the "Detour" signs will be in place by the opening of the vacation season.

Artificial rain and synthetic thunder will be forgiven if the scientist can make some sort of arrangement for perpetual June.

Europe is overcrowded, says a British anthropologist, but the Old World has always been able to find room for an argument.

The boll weevil is a curse, but now that so much artificial silk is being made, it won't be necessary to make so much of it out of cotton.

The theory that America's best brains are in the business world is revived by a scientist's announcement that a man thinks best with his feet on a desk.

An American admiral denies the Einstein theory entirely. This is one controversy in which neither participant can hope for much more than our moral support.

Regular steamboat service on the upper Mississippi is re-established after seven years, binding St. Louis and St. Paul in a kind of holy—or at least saintly—alliance.

More than 180,000,000 hairnets produced in one Chinese province were used in this country last year, most of them to make a bobbed head look like something else.

BATTERY SERVICE

is what you will get here. Drive right up and have your auto battery put in perfect shape. We repair, recharge, test, rent, sell and otherwise handle auto batteries in a real service way. We specialize in this line.

BISHOP'S GARAGE
Landrum, S. C.

HAULING!

Rock and Sand for Sale at Reasonable Prices.
Dirt moving, hauling of all kinds.

W. D. PEARSON
A. C. DILLARD, Representative, Tryon, N. C.

Tryon Taxicab Company

Williams Brothers
Cadillac and Buick Touring Cars
Careful Drivers. Day and Night Service
Phone 150, Tryon, N. C.

Prepare Now

You know that sooner or later Winter will be here, so why not prepare now to have your home warm and comfortable.

The price of the best Coal is less now than it will be next winter and you are sure of delivery when you want it.

W. S. GREEN
TRYON, N. C.

Wood Coal

Another Premium For the Fair

We will give one pair of Hamilton Brown Ladies Shoes, value $5.50, for the best Loaf Bread baked from Pinnacle Flour, the finest bread flour.

Hamilton Brown Shoes are all leather. Pinnacle Flour is always fresh and clean.

Also 100 pounds of Pinnacle Flour for the best half dozen biscuits baked from Pinnacle Flour.

Both are sold and guaranteed by

Andrews Brothers
TRYON, N. C.