

How Suburbanites of Dayton Get Library Books

Miss Electra Doren, chief librarian at Dayton, Ohio, conceived the idea of carrying books to readers who could not conveniently patronize the library, and her "rolling library," consisting of a truck with shelving for 600 volumes and 104 current periodicals, has proved a great boon to suburban dwellers. The truck canvasses a different section of the suburbs every day. The plan is economical, too, in that it is saving the construction of branch libraries. The photograph shows Miss Doren standing at the rear of the truck.
