

Hawaii Pineapple Plantation Covered With Paper

This photograph shows a remarkable view of a Hawaiian pineapple plantation on which what is known as pabeo mulco paper is being used. This is more commonly known as roofing paper, and as it conserves heat and moisture in the ground, its use promises to revolutionize agriculture in the islands.

These Children to Stage Tableau in White House

America's most talented stage children, winners in the National Stage Children's association contest, in which over one million children of the United States participated, are to stage a tableau, "Cheer Up, America," before President Coolidge at the White House in November. The winners are fifteen in number, and are all in this photograph.

Lloyd George at America's Shrine

David Lloyd George, his wife and daughter at the tomb of George Washington, Mount Vernon.

Jeffery Farnol in New York Again

Jeffery Farnol, noted English novelist, here shown with Mrs. Farnol in their hotel in New York, is revisiting his old haunts in that city. Farnol, who is married to an American woman, came to this country twenty years ago, penniless. He tells vividly of his struggles to earn a living for himself and his wife. He painted scenery for theaters when his writing did not sell. Later he was befriended by gunmen and thugs, many of whom have gone to the chair, and he claims that they opened their hearts and purses to him when he saved their leader.

TRIBUTE TO DEVIL DOGS

"The Marine," work of Robert Aitken, well known American sculptor, which is a stirring tribute to the "devil dogs" of the war, will be unveiled on Armistice day at Paris Island, South Carolina, in memory of the thousands of marines who gave their lives for their country.

IN FOIRE DE CROUTE

This artist of Montmartre, Paris, taking advantage of the exhibition properties of a boulevard tree, enters his paintings in the annual "Foire de CROUTE," held in the streets of Paris for the benefit of the less successful painters of the Butte.

Made a Hit.

Boxing Instructor—Are you satisfied with your first boxing lesson?
Battered Pupil—Y-e-s; but don't you think I could take the others by correspondence?—Paris Le Rire.

Scene in Changsha, Center of Chinese Civil War

Native section of Changsha, China, the hotbed of the fighting between the forces of the North and South. The city all Americans have been forced to leave.

Palatinate City Where Republic Was Proclaimed

View of Ludwigshafen, chief city of the Bavarian Palatinate, where a group of separatists proclaimed a new republic.

LINCOLN BUST IN LONDON

This bust of Abraham Lincoln has just been unveiled in the Mirror room of the Savoy hotel in London. "Tay Tay" O'Connor, M. P., was the guest of honor.

CHIEF OF THE SCOUTS

Daniel Carter Beard, National Scout commissioner, who headed a delegation of one thousand boy scouts on Navy day to pay tribute at the grave of Colonel Roosevelt.

Clothes That Passed in the Night.
Passenger (after the first night on board ship)—I say, where have my clothes gone?
Steward—Where did you put them?
Passenger—In that little cupboard there, with the glass door on it.
Steward—Bless me, sir, that ain't no cupboard. That's a porthole.—Reynolds' Newspaper.

There Are Lucid Intervals.
Kitty—Mr. S— stutters, which is most unfortunate.
Fifi—Does he stutter all the time?
Kitty—Well, no; he only stutters when he talks.

Case of Necessity.
Ted—Whatever the moralists may say, short skirts made a girl look neat.
Ned—Yes; they kept her from going around with darned stockings.

Girl Freshies Were Rebellious

Because girl "freshies" at the University of Cincinnati refused to wear white middies and ignored other rules of the women's vigilance committee, they were punished recently by being compelled to brush the teeth of the two big stone lions in front of McMicken hall.

Two New Pets for the White House

"Blackie" and "Tiger," two new arrivals at the White House, presented by a Boston admirer of the President.

Towing Coal on the Mississippi

Mississippi steamboat with eight barges, equivalent to 400 carloads of coal, passing Memphis, Tenn. This barge project is operated by the government and was recently inspected by the senatorial committee.