an appeal to all citizens of this country to "forget the things that are behind" and to unite with all good citizens of the world in all movements for a righteous and permanent peace, using Locarno as a model of procedure; to quit advising the world from the vantage ground of superiority, and strive with all that is in us for the understanding of "those others" that we ask for ourselves and upon which alone we may base any hope for salvation from even greater cataclysms than that of 1914-1918.

Rest Exercise That Will Be of Benefit

Here are a few simple directions for rest exercises: Manufacture and mix your own drugs and keep your body going. Be superintendent of your own plant yourself. Rest your thyroid, which produces your iodine or energy for the body. To rest your thyroid, relax the whole region where the thyroid is. Relax your neck and every time that it tenses or starts to tense, stop it. To rest your thyroid still more, use less of its product. To use less of its product, distribute what you have it make, where it belongs. To distribute what energy you make where it belongs, practice any form of exercise you like which intensively balances the body. By balancing the body—the most effortless exercise there is, an exercise which is done better the less effort it takes—the friction in the body which has kept calling on the thyroid for ten times as much iodine as anyone has a right to ask it to make, comes to a stop, and at the same time that you are relaxing your neck, and making iodine less, the body stops drawing on it for more.—Gerald Stanley Lee, in Hearst's International-Cosmopolitan.

Human Traits Evolved by Young Chimpanzees

Remarkable human characteristics have been discovered in apes by Prof. W. Kohler, a German scientist. He captured and kept nine young chimpanzees in his jungle home on Tenerife, off the African coast, studying his peculiar family for six years. The apes knew and loved him, growing livelier in their games when he joined in. His personal appearance was well known, and when he appeared in riding breeches the apes puzzled and studied the breeches minutely. They would take off his sunglasses and try them on their own noses; and when the professor shaved off his beard there was a great commotion, the apes stroking his face, neck and chin, and even poking down his collar to find the vanished hair. Chimpanzees have a sense of humor, show great affection, and know when they have misbehaved and deserve punishment, being highly indignant with an offender who has been caught.

ZeZ Confrey Mixes Salads and Songs

ZeZ Confrey, famous composer of the musical classic, "The Kitten on the Keys," is hailed by his friends as the most versatile of America's popular song composers. Those who know him say he can mix a salad or a song oddity with equal success, which is saying considerable since his portrayal of the delightful pranks of a certain young feline frisking over the ivories has been recognized as the model of American syncopation.

The simple life is Mr. Confrey's idea of happiness. Every so often Manhattan gets too crowded for him and he boards a train for the country and the companionship of a certain murmuring brook. Inevitably he comes back with one of the merry tunes for which he is noted. A bachelor, ZeZ keeps open house for his friends. If he invites a few of the boys over for a midnight supper, he does the cooking himself. Invitations to his lively little dinners are sought after. There are two dishes to which Mr. Confrey is partial. So are his friends. His recipes for the two follow:

Royal Eggs With Mushroom Sauce. 12 eggs 1 1/2 cup evaporated milk 1 salt 1/4 cup melted butter 1-2 pound mushrooms 1 slice pimento 2 tbsp. butter 12 slices toast 1/4 cup evaporated milk 1/4 cup melted butter 1-2 pound mushrooms 1 slice pimento 2 tbsp. butter 12 slices toast

Saute the mushrooms in 2 tbsp. butter, taking care not to burn; make a white sauce of two tbsp. butter, four evaporated milk and meat stock. Cook five minutes. Add the cooked mushrooms and chopped pimento. Break eggs and drop into hot fat, being careful to keep egg in globular mass. Just as soon as they are a golden brown lift out and drain. Place an egg on each piece of toast. Prepare the cheese mixture between the pineapple. Lay two of the prepared pieces of pineapple on a crisp lettuce leaf. Serve with creamy salad dressing. This serves five.

Pineapple-Cheese Salad. 10 slices pineapple 1 cup cream 1/4 cup chopped nuts 2 tbsp. evaporated milk 1/2 cup pineapple juice 1 tsp. sugar Green and red mangoes Creamy salad dressing

Combine the cheese, nuts, evaporated milk, pineapple juice and sugar, and blend into a smooth mass. Cut pineapple circles in half. Spread cheese mixture on a slice of pineapple and press the other half circle of pineapple on top of cheese and one would a slice of bread in making a sandwich. Cut diamonds or triangles from green and red mangoes and press into the edge of the cheese mixture between the pineapple. Lay two of the prepared pieces of pineapple on a crisp lettuce leaf. Serve with creamy salad dressing. This serves five.

She Knew the Breed Little Marion and her next-door neighbor, Donald, were engaged in an absorbing conversation. "What are anarchists?" asked little Marion. Then Donald swelled with wisdom. "They want everything anyone else has got and they never wash themselves," he replied. "Oh, yes!" cried little Marion, with enthusiasm. "I see—they are just little boys grown up!"—Gulf Coast Lumberman.

Silvertip Showed He Could Cover Ground

Any one who has seen a bear walk knows how slowly he seems to move, and his run is a shuffling, lumbering gait that is comical to witness, unless he happens to be running after you. But a bear moves pretty fast, not withstanding appearances, and the grizzly, which looks to be clumsy on the brown or the black bear, can cover ground faster than the average horse.

A western sheep rancher was riding in the foothills when he saw a big, awkward silvertip. He had a rifle, but was not certain he could kill the bear at one shot and knew that he would get into trouble if he missed. So he gave a regular cowboy yell, and the bear started away in alarm. The man gave chase at the same time keeping up the piercing yell, and he soon noticed that the grizzly was getting farther away. He continued the chase for nearly two miles, until the bear disappeared in the mountains, and he had not gained a foot.

In going back over the trail he noticed places where the bear had made jumps of 15 or 20 feet, and the ground had been cut up by his claws, so that it looked as if a harrow had been run over it.

No Longer Satisfied With Looker-On Role

Bobby, age five, sitting with majesty in the barber's chair, gazed with scorn upon his sister, age seven. "I asked for you to come with us," he remarked haughtily, "so you could look at me while I have my hair cut. And you are not looking!" "Oh, but there was accusation, dire reproach in his youthful fury. "I am tired of looking. I don't want to look any more. I want my own hair cut," sniffed sister. "It is your turn to look at me." Bobby's lip quivered. Traitorous, jealous sister. Say, just wait till he got her home. He'd pull her hair.

It's happening all over the world in every age, in every walk of life. Sister is tired of looking.
