

The Comic Strip

MICKIE, THE PRINTER'S DEVIL

By Charles Sughroe

An Improbable Story

61

THE FEATHERHEADS

By L. F. Van Zelm

Gosh, He Struck It

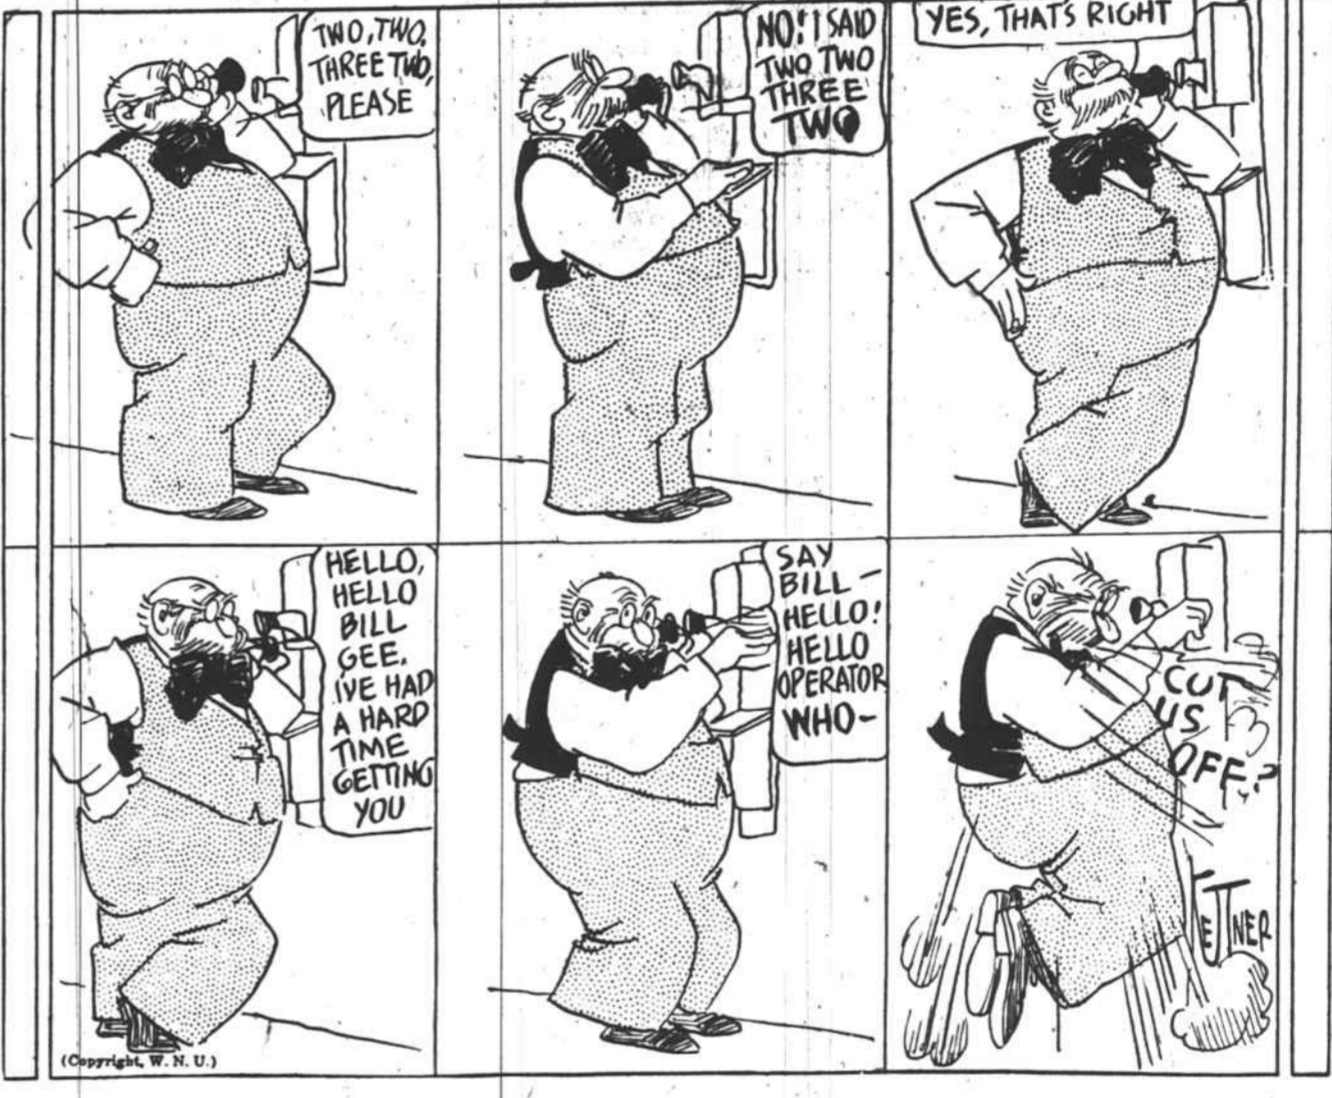

Gus Hanger is fined for smoking in a public place. He is going to ask the Mayor to mention it in the next issue of his Envelope. Gus will get the next Page!

HAMBONE'S MEDICINE. BEY ALL... RESPONSIBLE... WHUT GO... PLACE BUT... LAK SECA... MAN IS QUE... MO MONEY!

Events in the Lives of Little Men

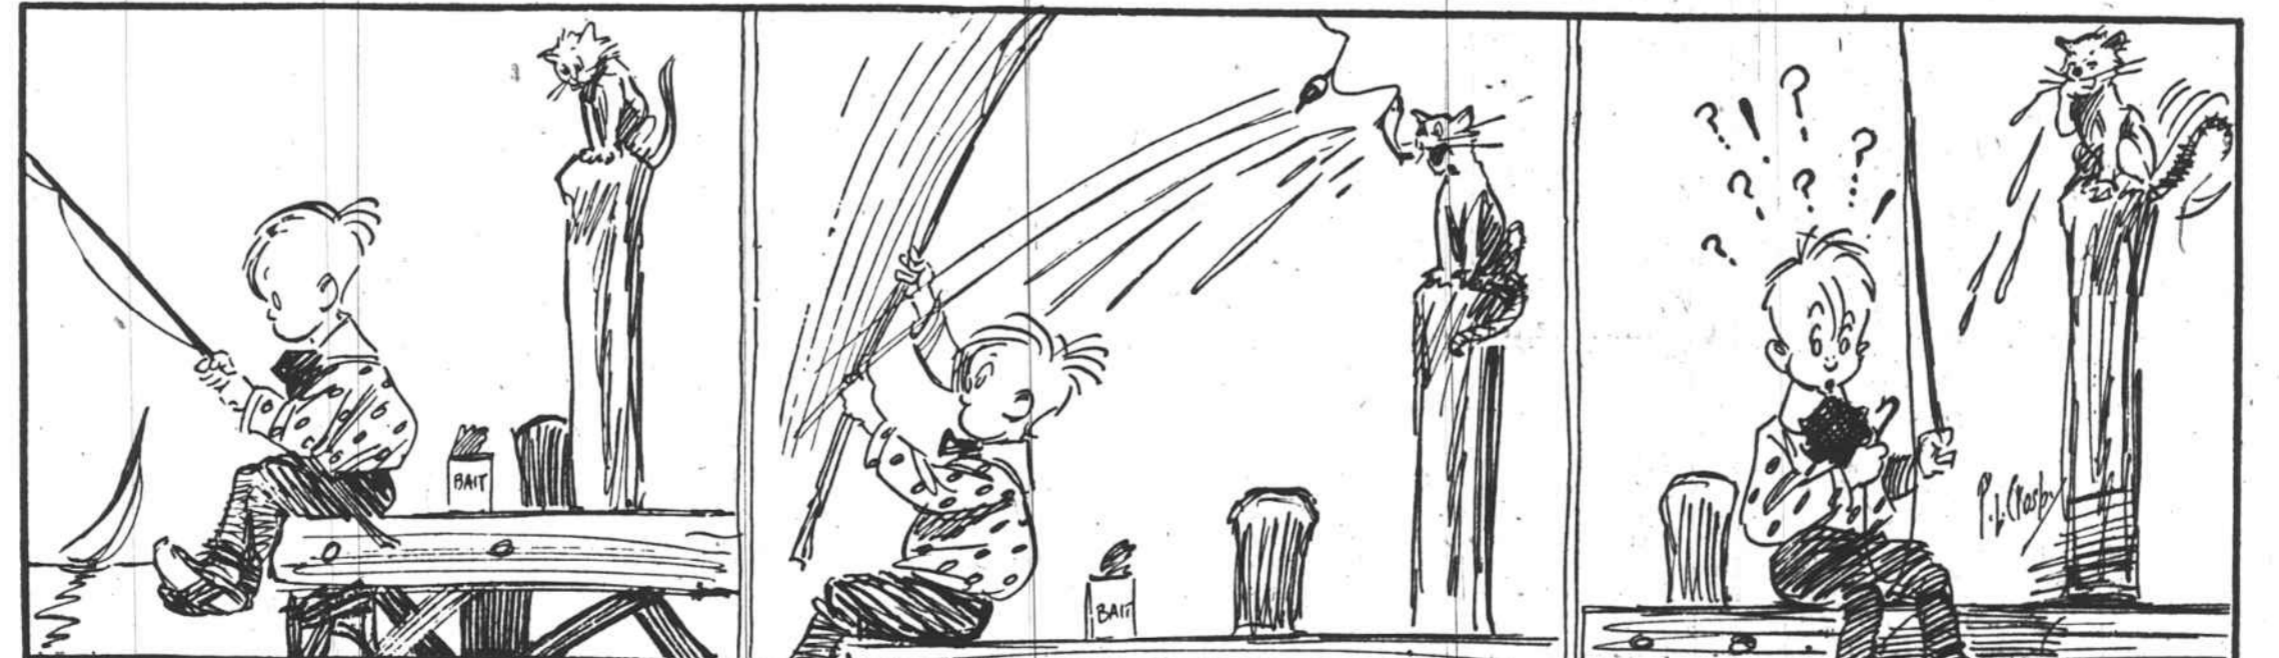

Our Pet Peeve

HOME WANTED FOR A BABY

The Clancy Kids It Must Have Been Catfish By PERCY L. CROSBY

TO AROUSE THOUGHT. Jones - Mental activity makes thick hair. says a medical scientist. Jinks -

Where She Shines. What kind of a worker is that new filing clerk? She does splendidly with her nails, but she's not much good with the letters. Politics. Don't you want to do something for your country? I only have to look after my dis-

LOCATING THE BREAK. Old Isosceles - Why so sad, young fellow? Did your girl break her en-

Then She Found More. Wife (after exhausting tirade) - In other words - Hub (interrupting) - There aren't any; you have used 'em all. Preparedness. Marry my daughter? Certainly not! She is too young. Well, may I be first in the queue when the rush starts?

INCOMPLETE. Mother - You're hard to please. I've given you a toy automobile - now you want a doll. Freddie - Now I

Improvements. Tripod looks happy. Yeh, got an assignment to film 'Romeo and Juliet.' Gonna show 'em how to improve on Shakespeare. They Start Early Now. Well, dear, what shall we get for Esther's sixth birthday? I was thinking of a vanity case.

THE CHEERFUL CHIEF. It always rains on picnic days And storms and howls and blows But I've one consolation still It never spoils my clothes.

NOT REVEALING. Young man (at box office) have two tickets, please. Attendant - What do you want? Y. M. (angrily) - Tell me my girl's name.

WHAT 'UD BE THE. If only we could see others see us. Well, we wouldn't believe