Jack Dempsey Starts Work For Big Bout

Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight boxing Champion, gets down to business today when he stages his first exhibition match this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the huge arena that has sparring partners on the outskirts of Hendersonville.

Yesterday, the fighters time was taken up with Floyd Fitzsimmons, who came here in the hopes of getting the fighter to sign a contract for the Wills match. After he had seen Fitzismmons off on the train, he spent the rest of the day sight-seeing Tourists, April 26.-Having spent with Harvey Hester, and a host of friends, over Asheville and surround- and having cconsumed three Sunday ing territory. This morning at nine o'clock, he started his first road work of training grind over the highways leading out and over Laurel Park Estates. After a short run, Dempsey intends taking a little rest and immediately get into action with the punching bag, rope skipping, shaddow doxing and, last but not least a few rounds of exhibition fighting with the numerous tparring partners he brought with him. amounts to anything. Many motored out to get a of the Tourists to the surface. glimpse of the champion yestarday, but failed to do so.

At present, Dempsey is a little overweight. Five pounds to be exact. And he says that he will have that much off within the next week or so. Being questioned as to who he thought he would fight. Dempsey replied that he didn't care who he fought, but would leave that problem to Tex Richard who holds his signed contracts.

"Give me time to get into condition, back as gamely as did the Comers, and I will be willing to meet anyone," then the Sally rates as a Class A leasaid Dempsey. "Although I had rather gue and not as a Class B league at meet Harry Wills." all."
