OES 223 Installs Matron, Organist

Morehead City Chapter 223, Order of the Eastern Star held a special meeting Friday, May 14, for the purpose of installation of the Worthy Matron and organist who were ill at the time of the regular installation of officers for the year.

The installation service was carried out in a nautical scheme, the Chapter room was decorated as the deck of a ship, complete with light-house and harbor lights blinking just inside the Chapter room.

Mrs. Mabel Piner, retiring Worthy Matron, opened the meeting, the American Flag was presented and the pledge of allegiance given. The conductress presented Mrs. Madge Jones, past matron of Morehead City Chapter 223 as installing officer Miss Ethel Whitehurst of Beaufort Chapter 128 as install-marshall and Mrs. Anabell Phillips of Morehead City Chapter 223 as installing organist, who were escorted to their stations. The following were escorted west of Esther's chair and given hearty greetings, Mrs. Mamie Parker, past matron of Craven Chapter, New Bern; Mrs. Mildred Boyd, past matron of Craven Chapter, Charlie Boyd, past patron of Craven Chapter, and Mrs. Ann Orringer, Grand Representative of Virginia.

Mrs. Piner, retiring worthy matron, gave a brief farewell message and then turned the gavel to Mrs. Jones, the installing officer. A beautiful solo was rendered at this time by Mrs. Nellie Hall, sister of the worthy matron elect.

J. E. English, Past Patron of Morehead City Chapter, and father of the worthy matron-elect gave a nautical reading, comparing the various officers to ships of a fleet commanded by the worthy matron. The officers marched in to this reading and took their places at their stations with the exception of the worthy maron elect and the organist who were seated in a semicircle west of Esther's chair.

The installing marshall presented Mrs. Lillian Robinson to be installed as Worthy Matron and Mrs. Polly Davis to be installed as organist. Mrs. Robinson took her place at the Altar where she received her obligation after which she was escorted to her station in the east by her son, Elmer Nelson, dressed in the uniform of a Navy Lieutenant, which office he held during World War II. While she was being escorted to the East, Mrs. Hall sang appropriate words to the tune of Red Sails in the Sunset. She was presented to the Chapter and received grand honors. The organist, Mrs. Polly Davis then took her obligation at the Altar and was escorted to her station.

The gavel was then turned over to Mrs. Robinson the newly installed Worthy Matron. At that time both she and the Worthy Patron Mr. Justin Robinson were presented gifts by the Junior Past Matron, Mrs. Piner, Mrs. Piner and the Junior Past Patron, Mr. Frank Reams presented the Chapter.

Mrs. Robinson then presented Mrs. Piner with a personal gift in appreciation of her assistance in assuming her duties while she also. The Chapter was then closed and Officers and distinguished visitors were asked to form a receiving line in the reception hall where delicious refreshments were served.

"Last Days of Pompeii" To Be Shown Sunday

A Religious Film, "The Last Days of Pompeii" will be shown in the First Methodist church, Sunday evening, May 23, at 8 o'clock.

"This spectacular drama tells the story of Marcus, a simple man of Pompeii who was happy in poverty until death took his wife and child. Setting wealth and power as his goal he becomes a great gladiator. After losing out in the arena he goes to Judea where as a partner of Pilate he wins great wealth. He also meets Jesus who heals his stricken son. He is shocked at the mob violence when Jesus is crucified. Back in Pompeii Marcus becomes head of the arena. Dying, he catches a vision of Christ and knows that in giving his life to save his son, he has gained something greater than wealth."

There will be no admission charge for this film.
