

Two War Generations Will Join Forces to Sell Poppies

Mothers, wives, sisters and daughters of the men who defended America in two world wars will be among the volunteers who will distribute poppies to be worn in honor of the war dead here on Poppy Day, Saturday, May 29.

Mrs. Philin Ball, president of the Morehead City Unit of the American Legion auxiliary, has reported an enthusiastic response to her call for Poppy Day volunteers from the families of veterans of both wars. All will serve without pay or reward of any kind, the contributions they receive going entirely to the Auxiliary's work for disabled veterans and needy children of veterans.

"Many of our poppy workers this year will be young women distributing poppies for the first time," said Mrs. Ball. "They will be largely wives of World War II veterans who have recently come into our Auxiliary and are taking up their share of our work for the disabled and dependent families. They know the growing need among World War II families and I am sure they will be among our most energetic workers."

"Side by side with the younger women will be our older members, women of World War I families. They have been Poppy Day volunteers for many years and have seen the poppy funds bring aid to veterans and their families year in and year out. They, too, know how rapidly the number of disabled veterans and needy children of veterans is increasing, and they will be back on the streets this Poppy Day to help bring in increased funds for the Auxiliary's work of mercy and relief."

"Our junior members, too, will have a part in Poppy Day. They are daughters and young sisters of veterans and they are learning early to serve for the welfare of their community and country."

"These public-spirited women and girls will be on the streets throughout the day on Poppy Day, offering their veteran-made memorial flowers for everyone to wear. I hope everyone will greet them in the same spirit they are showing and help make the day truly one of remembrance of the war dead and aid for the war's living victims."

At the time of the auction of the Morehead Motors property, the bid of Paul M. Stroud of $46,000 was not accepted by the owner, LeRoy Guthrie. Since that time these two parties have come to an agreement regarding this property, with the result that Mr. Stroud will soon take over a majority of the property with the intention of opening a Service Center or Supermarket.

Mr. Stroud recently sold his holdings in a similar business at Cherry Point where he had been located for the past five years. It is expected that this Service Center will be in operation by early summer.

Cholera Causes Continual Worry To Hog Growers

COLLEGE STATION, Raleigh — In spite of the "remarkable progress" made last year in checking hog cholera losses, authorities this week reported new worries over what this No. 1 swine killer could do to swine production and profits this spring, according to Dr. C. D. Grinnels, professor of veterinary science at State college.

"The virus of hog cholera is as deadly as ever," says a report this week by the American Foundation for Animal Health. It strikes, kills, and spreads as fast as ever. Moreover, the diseases moves in cycles. For several years, the number of outbreaks has been reduced. This may be the year for a fresh upturn in the cycle, and that could be disastrous to this season's short pig crop.

Approximately 1,300 outbreaks of hog cholera were reported last season. Holding outbreaks to this figure, the Foundation said, "was very probably due to the large number of vaccinated hogs which formed a living barrier to the spread of the disease."

"Every pig should be vaccinated this year around weaning time, as there is no cure for cholera," the Foundation report declared. "The only sure protection lies in vaccination before an outbreak strikes."

As a further precaution, Dr. Grinnels urged farmers not to visit the barns or pastures of any neighbor who has a known or suspected case of cholera in his swine. Hog cholera can be spread on the feet or clothing and by truck and wagon wheels, he pointed out.

Determination of latitude by "shooting" stars is sometimes rendered incorrect by gravitation of surrounding mountains. The accepted position for Tokyo was incorrect by about 1,000 feet for many years because of this factor.

Queen Street Players Present Two Dramas

Two one-act plays, "A Date for Bobby Sox" and "The Boor," were presented this week at the Queen street school in an evening of dramatic activities. The program was under the direction of J. B. Christmas.

"A Date for Bobby Sox," by Donald Payton, is a comedy having to do with a modern bobby soxer on her very first date. Evelyn Pasteur played the bobby soxer, her boy friend, John Windley, her sister, Vivian Johnson, and her parents, Clara Anderson and Caesar Campbell.

"The Boor," by Anton Chekhov is a Russian tragedy. Velma Fulcher, George Davis, and Moses Gaskill played the parts.

In another of the evening's activities, the speech choir gave the One Hundredth Division of Psalms, Gloria In Ecclis, and Summer time.

Also presented the same evening was a brief musical revue, "Hit the Song."

The Norfolk Dredging company which for the past month has been engaged in deepening the channel from the inlet to the port terminal, has received the contract for the filling of the causeway from the south end of the Atlantic Beach bridge to the fast land at the beach. The work will require 72,000 cubic yards of filling. Dredging the filling material from the sound near the bridge has spoiled the hook and line fishing for the present in that vicinity.

"The Most Important Activity Of The State Government Is The School System"

Charles M. Johnson

Vote For CHARLES M. JOHNSON

Whose Qualifications In State Government Make Him The Best Fitted Man To Be The Next GOVERNOR of NORTH CAROLINA

1. Salaries: "First of all, I wish to see the State pay salaries that will attract and hold in the State's service the most competent and conscientious teachers. To accomplish this, there must be a substantial increase in teachers' salaries".
2. State School Building Aid: "Some of the surplus now on hand in the State treasury should be used in aiding less fortunate communities, particularly rural areas, to provide adequate school buildings".
3. More Teachers: "We must lighten the teacher's pupil load . . . A reduction in the pupil load can be accomplished only through the employment of more teachers. This will cost money but it will be money well spent".
4. School Health: "We should have in North Carolina a school health program that will insure to every child in every section, however disadvantaged, a fair chance at a healthy start in life".
5. Additional Progress: "A State School Commission, composed of intelligent and public-spirited citizens, is now making a thorough survey of our state school system, of our educational needs and of our ability to meet them. Its recommendations will have my sympathetic consideration".
