Windell-Damron Vows Spoken In First Baptist Church

The first Baptist Church was the scene of a lovely wedding on Saturday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock when Miss Garybel Windell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gary T. Windell, of Morehead City, became the bride of Alwayne Damron, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Damron, of Elora, Tenn. Dr. John H. Bunn officiated using the double ring ceremony.

Prior to the ceremony Miss Joyce Willis, organist, played "Liebestraum", "Clare de Lune", "Ave Maria", "To A Wild Rose," and the traditional marches for the processional and recessional. Mr. Guy Smith, Jr., of Beaufort, sang "Because" and "At Dawning," accompanied at the organ by Mrs. C. R. Hassell, also of Beaufort.

Vows were spoken beneath an archway which was covered with greenery and white flowers. Baskets of white gladioli and candles in seven and nine branch candelabras before a woodland background of nine and southern smiles were used to decorate the church.

Miss JoJane Windell, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and her only attendant. She wore an afternoon dress of blue crepe with white accessories and carried an old-fashioned nosegay of carnations, baby breath and roses.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an afternoon dress of white crepe fashioned along pencil lines with a draped skirt. Her accessories were white, and she carried a white Bible covered with satin from her mother's wedding gown and a white orchid and wore six strands of pearls, gift from the bridegroom.

The groom chose Ray Lewis as his best man and ushers were Corporal Bill Lee, Sergeant Ernest Holman, Corporal David Massaro and Sergeant Eddie Kallgren, all of Cherry Point.

The bride's mother wore a street-length dress of blue crepe with white accessories and shoulder corsage of yellow roses.

Immediately following the ceremony the bride changed to a pink palm beach suit with white accessories and wore the orchid from her Bible as a shoulder corsage. After a short wedding trip to unannounced points the bridal couple will be at home at 102 N. 17th street.

Mrs. Damron is a graduate of the Spencer High School and received an A. B. degree from Winthrop College in Rock Hill, S. C. At the time of her marriage she was employed by the Civil Service Commission at Cherry Point.

Mr. Damron is a graduate of the Huntland High school in Huntland, Tex. and has served two years with the United States Marine Corps. He is stationed at the Marine Corps Air Base, Cherry Point, North Carolina.

Out of town guests here for the wedding were Miss Martha Lynn Windell, cousin of the bride, of Rock Hill, S. C., and Miss Mary Frances Austin, of Wilmington, North Carolina, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Windell, of Fort Mill, S. C., Lt. and Mrs. T. A. Gibbin and Lt. and Mrs. Benton Clyde, Sgt. and Mrs. George Veach, of Cherry Point and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Austin of Wilmington.

Mrs. Darden Eure Speaks To New Bern W.S.C.S.

Mrs. Darden Eure was guest speaker at the June meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of Centenary Methodist church, in New Bern, last Monday.

She used Zacharias and his dreams in comparison to conditions today and urged that we must catch the vision and not build on too small a scale. Young people should be encouraged to take up the cross and go out to teach Christ. Women must know about and help the United Nations in bringing about peace. Today is the day for women to practice Jesus first, others next, and self last of all, thus building a world for God.

Baugham-Mahony Wedding Held In St. Michael's Church

Miss Gloria Marie Mahony, daughter of Mrs. Jack Alger Mahony, of 10 Tradd street, and the late Mr. Mahony, became the bride of Mr. William Edward Baugham, of Morehead City, N. C., Saturday afternoon in St. Michael's Protestant Episcopal church. The Rev. DeWolf Perry, rector, officiated.

White gladioli decorated the altar and chancel and white flowers and ribbons were used as pew markers. Miss Eulalie Adams played the organ.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Robert Druen Mahony. Her gown of French mousseline de soie was made with long sleeves, a French lace bertha, fitted bodice and a full skirt worn over a hoop and ending in a train. Her full-length veil of illusion had a lace cap with orange blossoms and her bouquet of white carnations was centered with orchids.

Miss Sarah Mahony was her sister's maid of honor. The bridesmaids were the Misses Courtonne Marshall, Louise Venning, Eleanor Hancel and Sally Pinckney.

Mr. Philip Ball, of Morehead City, step-father of the bridegroom, was his best man. The ushers were Mr. John Wilson, of Oak Hill, W. Va.; Mr. Conner Wiggins, of Atlanta; Mr. Alex Bonner, of Coral Gables, Fla., and Mr. Graham Elliott, of Washington, N. C.

Mrs. Mahony, mother of the bride, was attired in pale pink Bermuda crepe with a large white hat and a corsage of orchids.

Mrs. Philip Kalford Ball, of Morehead City, mother of the bridegroom, wore aquamarine mesh with white accessories and an orchid corsage.

A reception at the home of the bride's mother followed the ceremony. Presiding at the punch bowl were the Misses Joanne Simons, Marianne Walker and Madelle Musk. Mr. and Mrs. Baugham later left for a wedding trip to Miami and Cuba. On their return they will reside at 4 1/2 Tradd street.

Mrs. Baugham was graduated from McMinister high school and attended the College of Charleston, where she was pledged to the Alpha Nu chapter of Delta Delta Delta women's fraternity.

Mr. Baugham attended Oak Ridge Military institute, the University of Alabama and Alabama Polytechnic institute and now is a veteran student at the Citadel. His father was the late Mr. William E. Baugham.

Out-of-town guests were Lieutenant Commander and Mrs.
