Auxiliary Council Holds Annual Banquet Thursday

The Young Woman's Auxiliary Council of the Atlantic Baptist Association held its annual banquet at the Tabernacle Baptist church in New Bern Thursday night. Miss Noma Jones, President, of Morehead City, was in charge. The invocation was offered by Mrs. L. D. Daniel of New Bern. Miss Lois Bowden of New Bern extended the welcome to which Miss Joyce Marie Lewis of Davis responded.

During the business session, Miss Jane Marshall Jenkins of New Bern, Association Young People's leader, discussed the goals to be reached this year in commemoration of sixty years of the Women's Missionary Union. She presented certificates of recognition to the auxiliaries reaching the standard of 1947. The following officers for the coming two years were elected: Miss Delena Hughes of New Bern, President; Miss Joyce Marie Lewis of Davis, vice president; Miss Annie Willis of Morehead City, secretary.

The theme of the meeting was "Open Windows of the Y. W. A." Special music was supplied by two duets sung by Misses Pat Lamm and Jean Dixon of the Pollockville auxiliary and Misses Nevin and Edith Leary of the New Bern Tabernacle auxiliary. The Y. W. A. magazine and the Y. W. A. camps were discussed by the New Bern First auxiliary and the Morehead City auxiliary respectively, singing jingles to illustrate their points.

The inspirational message of the evening was brought by Mrs. H. M. Hines of Pollockville, who used as her subject "Seeing Through Our Windows the Opportunity of Turning Many to Righteousness." She closed her message by comparing the lives of young women to be used in shaping lives for Christ. A solo, "Speak to My Heart," was sung by Miss Delena Hughes of New Bern. Miss Lillian Humphrey of New Bern pronounced the benediction.

A delicious supper was served by the Women's Missionary Society of the Tabernacle church. The tables were lovely with attractive arrangements of summer flowers.
