Weddings

Summers-Hausner

On May 29th, the Catholic Chapel, of the Cherry Point Marine Corps air station was the scene of the wedding of Miss Virginia Hausner and Sgt. Henry Summers. The ceremony was performed by Chaplain Klesh.

Sandvig-Daw

The Havelock Community chapel was the setting on Saturday evening, June 12, for Miss Doris Daw's wedding to Glen Sandvig. The double ring service was conducted by Chaplain Richard D. Cleaves.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Daw of I-D Cedar Island drive and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sandvig of Winony, Minnesota.

Attending the bride were the maid of honor, Miss Ann O'Neill, bridesmaids, Mrs. Calvin Bryant and Gloria Cole, flower girls, Yvonne Lupton and Gill Daw, sister of the bride.

The bridegroom has as best man Royce Daw, brother of the bride. Ushers were John Thomas and T. W. Smith. The ring bearer was Mitchell O'Neill. Music was furnished by Mrs. C. C. Anderson who played "To a Wild Rose" by McDowell, "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes," "To a Lilly" by Hodson "Traumerer" by Shumann.

The attendants were gowned similarly in pink and blue taffeta and carried white roses. The maid of honor wore pink chiffon and carried pink roses. The flower girls were attired in white dresses with pink and blue sashes and hair bows and scattered rose and pansy petals.

The chapel was beautiful with palms, baskets of white gladioli. Seven-branched candelabra were candles glowing in each window.

The bride's mother was charming in dark blue, trimmed in pink with black accessories, and a corsage of white carnations.

The couple left immediately after the ceremony for a wedding trip to Washington, D. C.

In June, 1944, the number of American men listed by their draft boards as physically, mentally or morally unfit for military service totalled 4,200,000.

Since 1936, the world population has been increasing at a rate of about one per cent annually.

Beauties of the Ballet

Burroughs-Massey

At 10 o'clock on the morning of June 11 the Havelock Community chapel was the scene of a simple church ceremony in which Miss Mary Jo Massey became the bride of Thomas Burroughs. Members of the immediate families attended.

The bride was attired in a white street length dress with white hat and corsage of orchids. She was attended by her sister, Miss Hattie Massey, who wore white and a corsage of roses. The groom was attended by his brother, Herman Burroughs. The church was beautifully decorated with white gladioli. The Rev. Richard D. Cleaves conducted the double ring service.

A short organ program was furnished by Mrs. Garland Conley. The bride's mother wore blue gray crepe with black accessories while the groom's mother wore white with white accessories. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Massey of 22 E. Central drive and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Burroughs, also of Havelock. The couple will reside on Avon lane in the new housing project.
