Hamilton-Hufham Vows Spoken In Candlelight Service Saturday

The marriage of Miss Sarah Ann Hufham, daughter of Mrs. Helen Hand Hufham and the late Mr. Walter Hufham, of Morehead City, to Mr. Luther Hamilton, Jr., son of Judge and Mrs. Luther Hamilton of Morehead City was solemnized in the First Baptist Church on Saturday, June 26, at seven-thirty o'clock in the evening. Dr. John H. Bunn, pastor, officiated using the single ring ceremony. The choir loft and chancel were simply but effectively decorated with pine and southern smilax against a white background with arrangements of white gladioli and seven branch candelabras.

Wedding music was rendered by Miss Martha Ferguson, organist, of Columbia, S. C., and Mrs. Josiah Bailey, soloist, of Morehead City. The bride chose her sister, Miss Mary Etta Hufham, as maid of honor. She wore a lovely gown of yellow taffeta fashioned with a bertha neckline, fitted bodice ending in a point and a flowing gathered skirt with bustle. Her gauntlets were of matching taffeta and she wore a halo of green tulle with yellow snapdragons and plumosus and carried a nosegay of mixed summer flowers tied with green ribbon.

Mrs. Lawrence Vickers and Miss Mable Laine were bridesmaids and they wore light green taffeta gowns fashioned along lines similar to those of the maid of honor's gown. They also wore identical halos of yellow tulle and carried nosegays tied with yellow ribbon. Miss Margaret Nobles, cousin of the bridegroom, was a junior bridesmaid in a similar gown of yellow and Larry Vickers, nephew of the bridegroom, was ring bearer. The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Douglas Hufham, wore a beautiful model of traditional bridal white. Her gown was of simple design fashioned with a fitted bodice and long pointed sleeves of white slipper satin and a scalloped round yoke of white marquisette. Her full skirt of marquisette was decorated with appliqued bow-knots of white satin, and her coronet of white rosebuds.

The bridegroom chose his father, Judge Hamilton, as best man and groomsmen were Harvey Hamilton, Jr., and Floyd Chadwick. Ushers were Jesse Staton and Charles Freeman.

Mrs. Hamilton is a graduate of Furman University in South Carolina and Mr. Hamilton is a law student at the University of North Carolina.

After a wedding trip in Western Carolina they will spend the remainder of the summer at Chapel Hill where the bridegroom will attend summer school. Immediately following the wedding on Saturday evening the bride's mother entertained with a reception at her home, Arendell Street.

On Friday evening following the wedding rehearsal Mrs. Lawrence Vickers entertained with a cake cutting at the home of her parents, Judge and Mrs. Luther Hamilton, for members of the wedding party, immediate family and out-of-town guests. Mrs. Luther Hamilton greeted guests and ushered them into the dining room where delicious refreshments of frosted fruit drinks, wedding cake, nuts, mints, and bridal ices were served from a hand-made lace covered cloth table. Glowing white tapers in silver candle holders threw a soft light on the scene. The bridal colors of green and white were used throughout the home in lovely floral arrangements. Goodbyes were said to Mrs. Lawrence Vickers.

Robinson-Buck

The Free Will Baptist Church was the scene of a lovely wedding on Sunday morning at eight o'clock when Miss Dorothy M. Buck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Buck, became the bride of Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Robinson, of Morehead City. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. W. E. Anderson.

The church was beautifully decorated throughout in ivy and other greenery with white gladioli and glowing white tapers.

Prior to the ceremony a program of nuptial music was rendered by Mrs. Robert Hoggard, pianist, Miss Evelyn Jenkins, soloist, and cousin of the bride, sang, "I Love You Truly," "Always," and "Because."

Miss Arnette Garner, cousin of the bride, was her only attendant and wore a pink summer suit with navy trimmings. Her accessories were white, and she wore a corsage of pink rosebuds.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a street-length dress of blue silk with navy blue accessories and a shoulder corsage of red roses.

The bridegroom chose his brother, Bobby Robinson, as best man and ushers were Thurston Rice and Hubert Willis.

The bride's mother wore a dress of medium blue with black accessories and a shoulder corsage of red roses.

The bridegroom's mother wore figured silk with white accessories and corsage of red roses.

Mrs. Robinson is a graduate of the Morehead City High School and is employed by the Carolina Telephone Company.

Mr. Robinson is also a graduate of the Morehead City High School and served several years as a member of the United States Navy during World War II. He is employed at Cherry Point at this time.

Immediately following the ceremony the couple left for a wedding trip to Bridgeport, Conn., where they will visit the bride's sister, Mrs. Paul D'Agostino.

On Saturday evening the bride's parents entertained with a cake cutting at their home at eight o'clock.

The home was beautifully decorated with lovely gladioli and other summer flowers Mrs. A. B. Buck, Mrs. Richard Springler, Mrs. Murphy Jenkins and Mrs. Billie Jenkins served delicious refreshments from a lovely lace cloth covered table which was centered with the three-tiered wedding cake topped with the traditional bride and groom. White candles and greenery were also used to enhance the beauty of the occasion.

NEWS of the CHURCHES

Congregation to Discuss Church Business Tomorrow

The hour for prayer meeting Wednesday evening in the Free Will Baptist church, 10th and Bridges streets, will be used tomorrow night mainly for a church conference, the Rev. J. C. Griffin, pastor, has announced.

Reports of the various departments of the church will be heard and recommendations made for future activity. At the close of the series of evangelistic meetings Sunday night, many young people went to the altar and dedicated their lives to Christian service, Rev. Mr. Griffin reported.

The Rev. J. C. Griffin will install officers of the State League convention at the Sound Side Free Will Baptist church. The convention will be held Thursday and Friday. Delegates from Rev. Mr. Griffin's church will accompany him to the convention.

Twenty-four members of Rev. Mr. Griffin's former pastorate, Black Jack church of the Free Will Baptists, attended church services here Sunday in honor of Rev. Mr. Griffin's 69th birthday.

The guests brought baskets of food which were served as a picnic lunch under the trees by the church following the morning service.

Those who visited the Griffins were Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Buck, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. William Mills and children, Graham and Linda, Theron Paramore, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Zeno Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Boyd, Miss Adda Paramore.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon L. Clark, Mrs. Queenie Clark, Miss Joyce Stokes, Mrs. Wesley Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Cannon, the Rev. and Mrs. J. R. Davidson, James E. Davidson, and Misses Beth and Juda Davidson.

Also callers at the Griffin home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Paramore and children, of Winterville, N. C., and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Cerraway, of Merrimon.

Rev. Mr. Griffin served as pastor 14 years at the Black Jack church.

Police Find Satchel The Morehead City police department has reported that a small carrying case containing shaving cream, lotion, razor, pipe, and other articles has been found on Arendell street between 23rd and 24th streets. The owner should contact police to obtain the case and contents.

MRS. SAMUEL CAMERON STELL, who before her marriage on June 5 was Miss Vera Louise Hamilton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hamilton of Sea Level. Mr. Stell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Stell of Tarboro.
