Bride of Today Honored At Dessert Bridge Party

The Thompson home on Arendell Street was the scene of a delightful party Wednesday evening when Mrs. S. W. Thompson and her daughter, Miss Coretta Thompson, entertained with dessert bridge in honor of Miss Dawn Lewis, bride of today.

The hostesses used gladioli to enhance the beauty of the living room while all-white flowers were arranged in the dining room. Upon arrival the guests were invited into the dining room for delicious refreshments of cake, bridal ices, mints and nuts.

The table was centered with a miniature wedding cake which was topped with a nosegay of bride's roses and arranged on a reflector with satin streamers leading to attractive charms. Three branch candelabra with glowing white candles flanked the cake. The top tier of the cake was lifted by Miss Colleen King, cousin of the bride, and the first slice cut by Miss Lewis after which Miss King served. Mrs. Robert Shaw, the bride's mother, served the bridal ices while other refreshments were served from silver compotes and platters.

Five tables were used for bridge in the living room where the bride's table marked with a floral wedding ring.

High score for the evening was won by Miss Sarah Boyd and she received perfume. Second high, newly ash trays was won by Mrs. Josiah Bailey and low, note stationery, went to Mrs. Mildred Davis.

The nosegay from the wedding cake was presented to Miss Lewis and charms from the wedding cake to be placed on a silver bracelet, gift of the hostesses.

Miss Betsy Stallings, bride-elect, was also given a nosegay of bride's roses and china in her chosen pattern.

Miss Lewis received a gift of crystal in her pattern.

Miss Dawn Lewis Honored With Miscellaneous Shower

Mrs. Josiah Bailey honored Miss Dawn Lewis, bride-elect of July 2, with a delightful dessert bridge party at the Civic Center on Monday evening at seven-thirty o'clock. Beautiful white gladioli with greenery were used to carry out the bridal motif in the rooms. Upon her arrival Miss Lewis was given a lovely miniature nosegay of white roses.

A delicious dessert course of ice cream with homemade cake, mints, nuts and wafer thin cookies was served after which bridge was played at six tables and rummy at one.

Mrs. Sam Barnes received a silver butter for high score and Mrs. Kenneth Bradley, a pottery bowl, for second high. Mrs. Robert Shaw was consoled with earrings and Mrs. George Adams received the same for rummy.

During play the hostess served cold drinks.

Miss Lewis received a set of silver individual salt and pepper shakers from the hostess as well as many useful and attractive gifts from the others present.
