Miss Betsy Stallings Honored at Bridge Party

Miss Betsy Stallings, bride-elect of July 16, was honored at a delightful bridge party given Friday evening by Mrs. George Phillips and Mrs. A. T. Leary at Mrs. Phillips' home on Bridges Street.

Peach and white gladioli were attractively arranged throughout the living room and in the dining room with a lovely arrangement of fruit.

Each table was centered with an angel food cake iced in green and decorated in pink rosebuds with a center of strawberry ice cream which was served with salted nuts and ginger ale. Knives to cut the cakes were covered with satins ribbons and flowers and placed on each table while the bride's table was adorned with a miniature bride and groom.

Table prizes were pure silk scarfs and were won by Mrs. Bill Perrigo, Mrs. W. B. Chalk, Mrs. Virginia Purfoy, and Mrs. Taylor Vernon while the low score prize, pearl earrings, went to Mrs. R. D. McDougall.

The honoree was given silver in her chosen pattern by the hostesses.
