

Morehead City Social News

Carolyn Fulcher, Society Editor Phone M-578-1

Miss Fannie Cooper, of Henderson, is spending this week with Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hamilton.

Harry Lee Cooper, of Charlotte, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Marvey Hamilton.

Mrs. F. B. Cooper, of Nashville, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Garth Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hamilton and Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cooper.

Miss Marge Getter left Wednesday morning for Oliver General hospital, Augusta, Ga., after spending a week with the Alvah Hamiltons.

Jack Nobles, of Greenville, spent the week end here with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Goodwin, of the Ordinary Department of the Pilot Life Insurance company, Greensboro, N. C., have returned from Atlantic City where they attended the company's 30th Agency convention.

Mr. and Mrs. C. K. McCotter and family, of New Bern, have returned home after spending some time at the Owen Dunn Cottage.

Mrs. Owen Dunn, of New Bern, will arrive this weekend to spend the summer at her cottage.

Mrs. Bradley Duffy, of New Bern, was a recent guest at the Atlantic Beach hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Blair and family, of Cincinnati, Ohio, have arrived to spend the summer at their home on Crab Point.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Muse McCotter, of New Bern, are occupying the Pollock cottage for the month of July.

Misses Elizabeth Smith, Ann Smith, Adeline Vann and Mr. Tommy Marrow, of Goldsboro, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Maxwell last weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Schultz and son, Ernie, Jr., are the house guests of Dr. and Mrs. D. J. Eure.

Mrs. Carl Bell and Mrs. Alice Smith motored to Fayetteville Tuesday to bring Carl, Jr. back for a thirty days' vacation.

Mrs. Cecil Truitt, of New Orleans, La., is visiting her mother, Mrs. J. H. Neal, Sr.

Mrs. Leo Harvey returned today from Durham where she spent several days this week.

Mrs. Bell Hyman and Miss Harriett Marks, of New Bern, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Harvey at their cottage on Evans Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bender of Pollockville are spending the week here with Miss Lillie Piner and Mrs. Frank Longest.

Bill Sharpe, State News bureau, Raleigh, visited here this week. With him was Gilbert La Gorce, an official of the National Geographic society.

Mrs. Paul Mengel, of New Bern, is the guest of Mrs. Jerry Zollcoffer, of Henderson, at the Blades cottage on Atlantic Beach.

Billy Gaskins plans to spend the weekend in Mayport, Fla., with his family.

Mrs. Howard E. Dillon left Tuesday for Monterey, Calif., to join her husband who is stationed at Port Ord, Calif.

Guests at Jefferson Hotel
Some of the guests registered at the Jefferson Hotel this week are Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Katz, Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Luonda, and Mr. N. Melucci, of Philadelphia, Pa.; Sgt. and Mrs. R. A. Lefer, of Miami, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Bangs, of Raleigh; Mr. John Lipscomb, of Durham; Miss Marie Jordan, of New York City; Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Melvin, of Raleigh; Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Pollard, of Galax, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Matthew C. Veitch and family, of Erie, Pa.; and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Webb, of Greenville.

A look-out tower for pirates stands in the center of Havana's Malecon or sea wall drive. It was built 400 years ago.

Business and Professional Women Enjoy Picnic

The Business and Professional Woman's Club of Carteret County enjoyed a delightful picnic and marshmallow roast at Fort Macon on Wednesday afternoon at four o'clock.

Thirty-one members were in attendance with four guests from the Kinston Club. They were Mrs. Arthur T. Wilson, Mrs. Hardy Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. Wooten. Mrs. Wilson, who is past state president of the club and the present president of Kinston's club, gave an informal talk on the work of the Business and Professional Woman's Club and also a report on the state convention held at Bowling Rock last month.

Surprise Shower Given For Bride-Elect

Mesdames George Mizesko, Robert Hoggard, Bryan Poe and Bill Perrigo honored Miss Betsy Stallings with a surprise miscellaneous shower and bridge party at the Civic Center Wednesday evening.

Upon arrival of the guests the hostesses served ice cream sodas with decorated block cake, mints and nuts.

Bridge was played at eight tables with Mrs. Virginia Purifoy winning high score and Miss Dorothy Harrell, second high.

Dainty white petunias and other summer flowers were attractively arranged throughout the club room.

Miss Stallings received many useful and attractive gifts from her friends and the hostesses remembered her with china in her pattern.

Mesdames Williams And Chalk Entertain For Miss Stallings

Mrs. Bob Williams and Mrs. Bill Chalk entertained three tables of bridge on Wednesday evening honoring Miss Betsy Stallings, bride-elect.

White gladioli and other pastel summer flowers were attractively arranged throughout the home and gave a festive air to the occasion. Upon arrival the honoree was given a lovely miniature bridal bouquet of white roses and her mother, Mrs. Stallings, a corsage of red roses.

A dessert course of red rose ice cream molds with decorated bridal cake and nuts was served after which two progressions of bridge were played.

At the conclusion of play Miss Coretta Thompson received Elizabeth Arden flower mist for high score and Mrs. D. H. Lazenby, a white necklace, for second high. Miss Stallings received a silver sandwich tray from the hostesses.

BEACH NOTES

Among the guests registered at the Ocean King Hotel this week are: Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wooten, of Hickory; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Britt, of Turkey; Mr. and Mrs. Ben Singleton and party, of Stan- tonburg; Misses Dot Ricus and Evelyn Webb, of Wilson; Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Lambeth, of Rocky Mount.

Lt. Col. C. W. Harris, of Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Carlton and party, of Pinetops; Misses Jean, John and Sophie Watterson, of Guilford; and Miss Margaret Bishop, of Kinston.

Duffys to Have Family Reunion
Dr. and Mrs. Richard Duffy, of Evans Street, will hold a family reunion this weekend and expect all of their children to be present. Those planning to attend are Mrs. E. R. Williams and daughter, Mary Ann, of New York, who will spend six weeks and be joined on the 24th by Mr. Williams; Dr. and Mrs. Richard Duffy, Jr., of New Bern, Mr. and Mrs. William Croft Bickel, of Boston, Mass., Mr. Charles Duffy, of Knoxville, Tenn., and Mrs. Nathaniel Macon, of Raleigh.

SUNGLASSES
SUNTAN LOTION
BELL'S DRUG STORE
BEAUFORT

Mrs. J. C. Smith Wins High at Bridge Club

The Floating Bridge Club met with Mrs. Julius Nelson Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

Guests were Mrs. Clyde Young and Mrs. Reginald Lewis. High score prize, a luncheon cloth, was won by Mrs. J. C. Smith and second high, a hostess set, went to Mrs. Will Howland. Each of the guests also received a gift. The hostess served a delicious dessert at refreshment time.

Tuesday Bridge Club Meets With Coretta Thompson

The Tuesday evening bridge club met with Miss Coretta Thompson at her home on Arendell Street at eight o'clock.

Guests were Mrs. Walter Morris, Mrs. Sam Barnes, Mrs. Bob MacDougall, and Mrs. Thompson. Club high, a novelty set of coasters and napkins, was won by Mrs. Arthur LaMontagne and second high, plastic refrigerator covers, went to Mrs. Robert Shaw. Mrs. Walter Morris won guest high, a cuticle set, and slippers, kitchen knife holders, went to Mrs. Sam Barnes and Mrs. Robert Freeman.

The hostess served cheewees with fudge and cakes. Mrs. Robert Shaw will entertain the club next Tuesday.

Macy-Lewis Wedding Party Feted After Rehearsal

On Thursday, July 1, Mr. and Mrs. James Macy, Jr. were honored at a rehearsal party given by Miss Colleen King at the home of Mrs. Alfonso James.

Mrs. James invited the guests to the dining room, following a welcome by the hostess and her mother, Mrs. Roland King.

Bridal colors of green and white were used in the decorations. The refreshment table was covered with a lace cloth, and was centered with an arrangement of gladioli, candelabra holding light tapers flanked either side of the centerpiece. The table held trays of dainty hors d'oeuvres, cookies, mints, potato chips, deviled eggs, olives and pickles. Wedding punch was served by Mrs. Clarence Mitchell. Assisting in serving was Miss Claudette James and Mrs. Walter Davis, Jr.

The bride on arrival was presented a corsage of white gladioli, also china in her chosen pattern. Around 400 guests were called during the evening.

LENOXVILLE

Mrs. Gus Meden and two children and Mrs. Frances Herkt of Jersey City, N. J., arrived last Friday to spend some time here with Mrs. Meden's mother, Mrs. Julia Pake.

Mrs. Harry Willis and son, Bobbie, who visited relatives at Barnegat and Asbury Park, N. J., arrived home last Friday.

Mrs. Alvania Garner is spending some time with relatives at Sound View.

Mr. Harry Willis made a business trip to Rocky Mount last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Goodwin

For Beautiful Jewelry

KEEPSAKE RINGS

Lawrence Set—$450.00
Engagement Ring—$350.00
Also in various sizes up to $350.00

DAINTY WATCHES

See the graceful lines of this dainty Elgin Deluxe. It's sure to please her. Will go with any costume.

WELDON'S JEWELERS, INC.
Carteret County's Only Credit Jeweler
City Theatre Bldg. MOREHEAD CITY

Miss Carolyn Fulcher Honored at Tea Wednesday

Miss Carolyn Fulcher, bride-elect of next week, was honored at a tea Wednesday afternoon from 3:30 to 5:00 at the Civic Center by Mrs. Kenneth Bradley and Miss Ruth Macy. Upon her arrival the honoree was presented a miniature nosegay of white bride's roses and a cold meat fork in her chosen pattern of silver. Mrs. W. L. Fulcher, mother of the bride-elect, was presented a corsage of white carnations.

On the refreshment table, a miniature bride and groom stood before the crystal punch bowl, which was banked by a lovely arrangement of lace fern and white dahlias. Triple branched candelabra with white tapers entwined with lace fern and white dahlias flanked the punch bowl.

Mrs. Roma Styron, Miss Frances Pittman and Mrs. James Macy assisted the hostesses in serving lime ice punch, green and white iced, homemade cake squares, mints, mixed salted nuts, and a variety of fancy party sandwiches.

Arrangements of mixed summer flowers were used throughout the room.

Approximately thirty-five guests called during the afternoon.

of Lola spent a few days here the past weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Engelhardt and daughter, Barbara, of Bayonne, N. J., who spent the past week here with her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Pake and family, returned home the past week end.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Jackson and children who spent the past few days here returned to their home at Cherry Point Tuesday.

Mrs. William Willis and son, Francis and Miss Mamie Willis of Beaufort spent Sunday afternoon here with Mrs. Willis' mother.

Mrs. Roy Dickinson and children spent Sunday here with her mother, Mrs. Sophia Lupton.

Mrs. Larry Hunnings and two children who spent some time recently at Pascaugola, Miss., returned home a few days ago.

Mr. Baker Lupton spent the weekend here, leaving Sunday for Berkeley, Va. Mrs. Lupton and children who spent last week here with Mr. Lupton's mother, Mrs. Sophia Lupton, will leave Friday for their home at Suffolk, Va.

Expedition Finds Fossils; Evolution Story Expected

NAIROBI, Kenya — (AP) — Aid in untangling the story of evolution for man and apes is expected to come from remains of fossil apes uncovered by the University of California expedition to Turkana province. Wendell Phillips, head of the expedition, says the remains of the apes are among a large number of fossils found.

Havelock - Cherry Point

Mrs. Ruth T. Richardson, Editor Apt. 1F, Ocracoke Dr., Havelock

Body of H. E. Cecil Returned to U. S.

The body of Henry E. Cecil, chief machinist's mate, Navy, has been returned to this country among 4,842 Americans who were killed in Italy during World War II. Cecil was the husband of Mrs. Julia Cecil who formerly worked on the base in Navy supply and son-in-law of Mrs. W. F. Sholer, of Kinston and Cherry Point.

Mrs. Cecil is now at Bardstown, Ky., her husband's home, where the body will be interred. She received word that the body will arrive in the near future at Columbus, O., and from there it will be sent to Bardstown.

The chief machinist's mate, who had a nine-year record of service in the Navy was stationed aboard the destroyer USS Shubrick. He was killed during the invasion of Sicily Aug. 4, 1943. Prior to going overseas he was stationed four years in Norfolk.

CMM Cecil was holder of the Congressional Medal of Honor, and the Purple Heart. He will be buried with full military honors. Surviving besides his wife, are his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Cecil, five brothers, Francis L., Samuel Kennett, George, Joseph, and Ivo, and two sisters, Theresa and Peggy, all of Bardstown.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Sluder and sons have returned to Asheville after visiting Mrs. Sluder's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Beck of 5 C Rodanthe drive.

Mrs. Eugene Winecoff, of Mantoo Drive, has recently returned home after being a patient at the Rex hospital in Raleigh.

Luke McKenney, of E. Central drive, is a patient in the Orthopedic hospital in Gastonia, N. C.

Mrs. H. E. Beck, of Rodanthe drive, has been entertaining Mrs. C. B. Phipps, of Elizabeth City, N. C.

Mrs. Guy Combs, of Rodanthe drive, who has been on a two weeks vacation in Elizabeth City, is now visiting her brother in Plymouth, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Alban H. Uhlman and family, who have resided at 4 H. Avon Lane for the past few years, have recently moved to Norfolk, Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Anderson and children recently returned from vacation.

Mrs. R. H. Sensensig, of Reading, Pa., has been visiting for several days with Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Smith, of Ocracoke Drive.

Mr. and Mrs. Holmes Dees and daughter, Shirley Lou, who resided on Pembroke drive, have moved to the Old Project and now live at 2 W. Central drive.

The wading pools in the Project are to be destroyed and work on

News Notes

On Sunday evening, July 4, the First Baptist church in New Bern was the scene of the baptism of James Parson, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Parson of 1-A Pamlico drive. Chaplain Richard D. Cleaves officiated.

Mrs. G. E. Conley was visiting her mother in Elizabeth, N. C.

For two weeks Mr. and Mrs. Grafton Woodard and family have been visiting the grandparents in Oriental, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schoppaul and son, Jimmy and Donald, have been on an extended trip to Canada and Kentucky. They returned recently to their new home on 12 N. Craven drive.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Sluder and sons have returned to Asheville after visiting Mrs. Sluder's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Beck of 5 C Rodanthe drive.

Mrs. Eugene Winecoff, of Mantoo Drive, has recently returned home after being a patient at the Rex hospital in Raleigh.

Luke McKenney, of E. Central drive, is a patient in the Orthopedic hospital in Gastonia, N. C.

Mrs. H. E. Beck, of Rodanthe drive, has been entertaining Mrs. C. B. Phipps, of Elizabeth City, N. C.

Mrs. Guy Combs, of Rodanthe drive, who has been on a two weeks vacation in Elizabeth City, is now visiting her brother in Plymouth, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Alban H. Uhlman and family, who have resided at 4 H. Avon Lane for the past few years, have recently moved to Norfolk, Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Anderson and children recently returned from vacation.

Mrs. R. H. Sensensig, of Reading, Pa., has been visiting for several days with Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Smith, of Ocracoke Drive.

Mr. and Mrs. Holmes Dees and daughter, Shirley Lou, who resided on Pembroke drive, have moved to the Old Project and now live at 2 W. Central drive.

The wading pools in the Project are to be destroyed and work on this project will start very soon. Tenants are asked to keep their children away from workmen and equipment while work is in progress. These pools have been a menace to health and safety due to lack of adequate supervision and when this condition was called to the attention of the Civic Organization they recommended the disposition of the pools.

Housing Project Information Bulletins may be utilized by residents of the project to report a lost or found article. Contact the lease clerk at the Lease Office in the Housing Project Building or phone 8201.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Jenkins returned Friday to their home at 8 N. Craven drive. Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins have "vacationing for the past three weeks. They spent some time in Donalsonville, Ga. visiting Mrs. Jenkins' home and from there went on to Dead Lakes, Florida, where they stopped at Mrs. Jenkins' uncle's camp to enjoy the fishing. On the return trip they visited with Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Hornsby, of Atlanta, Georgia and in Nashville, Tenn. In Bowling Green, Ky. they were entertained by Mr. Jenkins' sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Francis.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Brooks, of Ocracoke drive, had several houseguests over the week-end. These included Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt Browning of Charleston, S. C., Mr. and Mrs. John Brooks and son from Winston-Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Foy Grubbs and children, and Mr. and Mrs. James Bowden and children.

Miss Lottie Blair of Donalsonville, Ga. and Mr. and Mrs. William Hornsby, of Wake Forest, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ferguson of E. Central Drive.

Mrs. E. H. Francis, of Bowling Green, Ky., is visiting her mother, Mrs. Hazel Jenkins of 8 N. Craven drive.

The regular meeting of the Women's Church Service league was held July 8 at 3:30 p.m. with Mrs. Brockway at her home at 10 Sunrise lane. After the meeting the husbands and families came to join the group for a weenie roast. Those enjoying the party included Mrs. Brockway and family, Mrs. Coon, Mrs. Hazel Jenkins, Mrs. Wilkinson and daughter, Sherrian, Miss Ila Lewis of Lowland, N. C., Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ligen and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Dickens, Mr. Frank Burton, Mrs. Isaac Twiddy and boys, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thomas.

Cortex regarded the loss of one horse as equal to that of twenty men.

EVERY VACATION NEED

---- Playmates To Help Make These Sultry Summer Days Really Enoyable ----

Save those curly-locks with a water-tite swim cap—white, and colors too.

Gaily decorated beach towels in a multitude of colors — any beach would be proud to wear them.

Handy jugs for picnics, or take one with you when you travel and you've always a cool drink.

Summer breezes — even when nature fails to supply them. All you need is an electric fan. Sizes and styles to suit your home and your budget. We have them.

Jumbo carry-all for all your beach equipment.

Soothing summer colognes — for both men and women — that give that sought after feeling of cool freshness — in the scents you like best.

Bathing trunks in both boxer and fitted styles. Plain colors and fancy prints. Styled to suit even the most discriminating swimmer.

Capture all the thrills of vacation-time festivities. Cameras and photo supplies are always in stock.

Don't squint! Protect your eyes — your good looks — sunglasses, in all the flattering styles with frames of varied hue.

THESE AND MANY OTHER ITEMS TO MAKE YOUR VACATION AT HOME OR AWAY A TRULY PLEASURABLE ONE

WE THANK YOU FOR YOUR PATRONAGE

MOREHEAD CITY DRUG CO.
A GOOD DRUG STORE
PHONE M 5001 MOREHEAD CITY, N. C.

Don't Forget First-Aid Supplies

Everything In Summer Toiletries

Gifts That Keep On Giving

BEACH—HOME—CAMP FURNITURE & HARDWARE

FOLDING CHAIRS & UMBRELLAS
SURF CASTING RODS & FISHING TACKLE

SUNBEAM & GE APPLIANCES

AUTOMATIC WASHERS, DRYERS, & IRONERS

ZENITH-RADIOS

HUNTLEY-PREST
"Where Quality and Price Are Best"

1509 Arendell St. M 9806 Morehead City

WELDON'S JEWELERS, INC.
Carteret County's Only Credit Jeweler
City Theatre Bldg. MOREHEAD CITY

NOBODY, BUT NOBODY, BUT HILL'S
 HAS SUCH VALUES TO OFFER DURING THEIR HALF-YEAR SALE — NOW IN PROGRESS
 MOREHEAD CITY NEW BERN GREENVILLE