Beach parties are in full swing and young people everywhere cart a basket of goodies to a lake or beach, sit around a glowing fire sing and play games.

With the advent of frozen foods fare for these parties has changed considerably within the last few years. You don't have to depend on hot dogs and hamburgers (al ways succulent in a pinch, how ever) when you can get frozen chicken a la king beans and French fried potatoes which can be heated in pans on a grate over an open fire.

Spanish rice can be made at home and reheated at the picnic scene by adding another can of tomatoes. Some people bring chickens which they broil on a spit (easy to make by setting up two forkshaped sticks, and using a metal skewer with a handle to turn the chicken). If beach par-
