OBITUARIES

Funeral Rites Conducted For Capt. H. D. Goodwin

Funeral services for Capt. Henry Davis Goodwin, 76, who died Saturday in the Morehead City Hospital, were held Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the First Methodist church. The Rev. Lester A. Tilley officiated.

Interment was at Bay View cemetery. Honorary groups participating in the funeral services were the board of stewards of the First Methodist Church, Rotary, American Legion, Woodmen of the World, and Masonic Lodge. Masonic rites were conducted at the graveside.

Captain Goodwin, who retired from the U. S. Coast Guard in 1931 after thirty years' service, was for many years in charge of the Fort Macon station. Since his retirement, he had been very active in the activities of the Methodist Church, having served as chairman of the board of trustees, member of the board of stewards, and treasurer of the First Methodist Church school.

He leaves, in addition to his widow, Lena Willis Goodwin, a daughter, Mrs. Guy Bennett, of Durham, and three sons, Lt. Cmdr. Clyde Goodwin, USCG, of Miami, Fla., Chief Boatwain's Mate Henry W. Goodwin, USCG, of Atlantic City, N. J., and Bruce Davis Goodwin of this city.

Mrs. James Booth Macy, Jr., who before her marriage on July 2 in the First Methodist Church, was Miss Hazel Dawn Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Pelham Lewis. Mr. Macy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Booth Macy of this city.

Miss Eloise Tilley Complimented at Party

Miss Eloise Tilley, bride elect, was honored on Wednesday night at a bridge party at the home of Miss Irene Spence. Hostesses were Miss Spence and Miss Dora Mae Staton.

Upon her arrival, Miss Tilley was presented a miniature nosegay of white bride's roses. Mrs. L. A. Tilley, mother of the honoree, was presented a corsage of red asters, and Miss Rachel Brock, also a bride elect, was honored with a miniature bridal nosegay.

The hostesses served cokes early in the evening. On each bottle was a favor, a beautiful rose. At the end of the second progression, lime ice, decorated bridal cakes, and nuts were served.

Prizes were won by Miss Mabel Laine, who was high scorer, Miss Rachel Brock, who was low scorer, and Miss Viola Styron, who was high scorer at rummy. Miss Laine's prize was a candy dish, Miss Brock's a nut dish, and Miss Styron's prize was note stationery.

The hostesses presented to Miss Tilley a fruit juice beverage set of hand blown glass. Miss Brock received a set of four salad plates. Sixteen guests were present.

Miss Davis Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Julian M. Davis, of Straits, announce the engagement of their daughter, Audrey Beryl, to Mr. William Hugh Sandtrson, of the Morehead City Technical Institute and Rocky Point, N. C. The wedding will take place on August 27.

Leslie M. Jackson recently completed a three-week visit with his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Jackson. He is now visiting his sister, Mrs. F. L. Fussell at her summer home, Carolina Beach.

Two Hostesses Honor Mrs. Robert Freeman

Mrs. Robert Freeman was guest of honor at a bridge party and stork shower Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. W. P. Freeman. Hostesses were Mrs. W. P. Freeman and Miss Eloise Freeman.

Party decorations were pink and blue. Cut flowers and toy animals and dolls were placed in the living room and dining room. Guests placed their shower gifts in a basket, which was guarded by a large stork.

On the lace-covered dining room table was a punch bowl, encircled with pink flowers and ivy. The hostesses served punch, mints, nuts, and individual cakes decorated in pink and blue.

There were eleven tables of bridge. High scorer for the evening was Mrs. Kathleen Jenkins, who won a sterling and crystal clock tray. Mrs. Frances Collins won imported handkerchiefs for second high score, and Mrs. Modine Exum was consoled with note paper.

The honoree received many lovely and useful gifts from the guests.

Mrs. Lamontine Hostess To Tuesday Bridge Club

Mrs. A. H. Lamontine entertained the Tuesday night bridge club at her home on Arendell Street.

Guests for the evening were Mrs. Quincy Stinson and Mrs. Kenneth Wagner. Mrs. Stinson was awarded a prize of cologne for guest high score.

Club high scorer was Mrs. M. B. Morey, who received a prize of cologne, and second high was Mrs. Robert Freeman, who received bubble bath.

The hostess served cokes, crackers, and candy. The club will meet next week with Mrs. Robert Freeman.

Mrs. Deyo Entertains Tuesday Afternoon Club

The Tuesday afternoon bridge club met at 1:00 at the home of Mrs. Ruth Deyo on Evans Street. Arrangements of cut summer flowers were used as decoration.

Mrs. W. A. Howland, Jr., high scorer, won a novelty hat, while Mrs. Helen Williams, second high, won a deviled egg dish. Mrs. Reginald Lewis, guest for the afternoon, received a gift of dish cloths.

During play, the hostess served salted peanuts and cokes. At the end of play, she served devil's food cake with ice cream.

Recent Bride Showered At Bingo Party Monday

Mrs. Coolidge Merrill, recent bride, was complimented Monday night at a shower and bingo party at the home of Mrs. George Phillips on Bridges street. Hostesses were Mrs. Phillips and Misses Patricia Mallison and Viola Styron.

Bridal colors were used as the theme for the refreshments, which were cake squares, blocks of ice cream decorated with wedding bells, mints, salted peanuts, and ginger ale.

The eighteen guests present enjoyed an evening of bingo. Miss Peggy Leary, the grand prize winner, was awarded a pair of earrings.

The house was attractively decorated with mixed summer flowers. In the center of the gift table, which was covered with a lace cloth, was a lovely miniature bride doll.

The honoree was presented a miniature nosegay of white bride's roses, and a silver sandwich plate by her hostesses. She received many lovely and useful gifts from her friends.

Misses Rachel Brock and Eloise Tilley, brides-elect, were remembered by the hostesses. Each received a set of individual salt and pepper shakers. Miss Mary Ann Turnage, bride-elect, was presented a gift of towels.

HOTEL GUESTS

Among recent guests at the Atlantic Beach Hotel were the following: Judge and Mrs. J. E. Bouchelle, of Wheeling, W. Va., Mr. J. C. Bolen of Charlotte, Mr. Bill Sharpe and Mr. John Hemmer of Raleigh, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Melnis and daughters, and Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Watkins and family, all of Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. John Peacock and son, Jack, of High Point, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Rowland of Kinston, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Gudger of Asheville, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Meadows of Rocky Mount, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Lynch, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Stillwell, and Mr. J. Bruton Wilder, all of Wilmington.

Among recent guests at the Jefferson Hotel were the following: Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Fauette of Burlington, Dr. and Mrs. Harden-Taylor of New York City, Mr. Aycock Brown of Manteo, Mrs. H. H. McCoy of Kinston, Mrs. Eleanor Smith of Kinston, Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Buchanan of Kinston, and Mrs. D. Heywood Duke of Greensboro.

Jade colors vary from deep green or black to pure milk white or cream tinted, with rarer finds of yellow, red, mauve, and mottled.

Mr. and Mrs. Brock Announce Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Edmond R. Brock announce the engagement of their daughter, Rachel to Graydon Bell Willis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Darcy Willis.

The wedding will take place Saturday, Aug. 14.

Broadhurst-Miller

Miss Mary Allen Miller, niece of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Willis, and Mr. Kenneth Broadhurst, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Broadhurst, were married Saturday, July 24, at 5 o'clock. The ceremony took place in the Baptist parsonage, with Dr. J. H. Bana officiating.

The bride wore a black and white print dress with black accessories, and a corsage of red roses. The couple were unattended.

Only relatives and close friends were present at the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Broadhurst are now at home in Morehead City.

Mrs. H. L. Joslyn, Jr., Honored at Bridge Party

Miss Corretta Thompson entertained at a dessert bridge on Thursday night, July 22, honoring her house guest, Mrs. H. L. Joslyn, Jr. Lovely arrangements of asters were used as decoration in the living room.

The hostess served chocolate sundaes, ginger ale, nuts, and cookies. During play, cokes were served.

The high score prize, a box of novelty paper napkins, was awarded to Mrs. R. D. MacDoughall. Mrs. Walter Morris won a set of hand painted fruit juice glasses, second high prize. The prize for low score, cranberry ash trays, was awarded to Mrs. W. B. Chalk. Miss Thompson presented her guest a piece of silver.

400 Attend Clambake At Williston Tuesday

Four hundred people were guests of Elmer Willis, Williston, at the clambake Tuesday night given in honor of the Board of Conservation and Development.

Among the notables present were Gov. R. Gregg Cherry, and the governor-elect, W. Kerr Scott, who spoke briefly. Lt. Gov. L. Y. Ballentine also made a brief address.

On the menu were steamed clams, chicken, corn on the cob, cokes, shrimp, and slaw. Centering the long table laden with food were bouquets of summer flowers which were definitely of secondary, if not of negligible interest, to the banqueters.

Following the feed, there was square dancing in the packing room at the clam house.

Couple Honored at After-Rehearsal Party

Miss Patsy Ballou and Mrs. Marjane McLean honored Miss Carolyn Fulcher and Mr. J. M. Moran and members of their wedding party at an after-rehearsal party Thursday night at the Webb Memorial Civic Center.

Upon her arrival Miss Fulcher was presented a lovely corsage of white gladioli and a pair of silver candlesticks by the hostesses.

The refreshment table was covered with a lace cloth. In the center of the table was a miniature wedding cake, topped by the traditional bride and groom. A lovely arrangement of white gladioli and fern surrounded the cake, and on either side were triple crystal candleabra holding white tapers.

After the bridal couple had cut the first slice, Miss Ballou served cake to the guests. The lime ice, salted nuts, and mints were served by Mrs. McLean.

Mrs. Claude Ricks, pianist, and Mrs. Josiah Bailey, Jr. and Mr. Kenneth Bradley, soloists, presented a lovely program of appropriate music.

Approximately thirty guests, including the members of the wedding party, out of town guests, and close friends of the couple, were present.

Miss Margaret Rose Entertains Dance Class

Miss Margaret Rose entertained her dance class at Morehead City with a treasure hunt Thursday afternoon at the County Recreation Center. The novelties which had previously been hidden out doors were soon recovered by the treasure seekers. Following the hunt the pupils went indoors and played several games.

Orange punch and cookies were served. Frieda Lewis found the most treasure, and Gail Price and Kathie Chalk won a prize in the amateur show, with Betsy Brooks, Sylvia Perry, and Ann Spivey giving plenty of competition with songs and an aerobicic stunt.

Ann Owens, Jane Saffit and Bitzy won prizes in the musical chairs game, and Miss Rose remembered Ann Garner, Carolyn Laine, and Jean Smoyer with ballet pins for helping her with class chores.

Other pupils attending included Paula Jones, Judith Willis, Pat Herring, Rose Daniels, Wayne Whitehurst, Novella Reid, Connie Jorgenson, Elizabeth Hill, Suzanne Beck, Elizabeth Edwards, Virginia Morris, Emily Chalk, Frances Whittly, Sally Ann Morris and Betty Eure.

Miss Rose is leaving for Washington, D. C., and New York City to attend the Dance Masters Convention. She is planning to resume her local classes September 1.

Many thousands of tons of jade are estimated to be deposited in Wyoming, California and Alaska.
