

In The Good Old Days

THIRTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
A Sunday school convention was held in Atlantic, and every one, regardless of denomination, was invited to attend.
Governor Craig, President H. B. Varner of the State Good Roads Association and Dr. J. H. Pratt were due to arrive in Morehead City to participate in the good roads convention being held there. The three men were driving over the Central highway from the Tennessee line to Morehead to rekindle interest in the perfecting of the Central highway. The trip was being made in just one week.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
The building housing the Farmers Supply and Fisherman's Co. burned down during the night. It stood on the waterfront at the foot of Ann St.

About 60 boys and girls of the farm clubs of Alamance county spent four days visiting in and around Beaufort.

TEN YEARS AGO
Representative Fred R. Seeley was to leave this weekend for Raleigh to attend the special session of the General Assembly called by Gov. Hoey.

A town meeting was to be held in the Town Hall to discuss improvements which may be made here through FWA funds.

FIVE YEARS AGO
Stanley Woodland, new appointed chairman of Carteret County War Price and Rationing board reorganized the board.
Daphne Pake of Bettie and Rufus Carraway of Merrimon were voted outstanding members on the recent 4-H camping trip.
