OF SPENDING SOME OF THE COINTERFEIT

HARLOWE

Mrs. Ashton H. Tallman, of near Beaufort, was here Wednesday morning. Mrs. Tallman was enroute to Bachelor to spend the day with Mrs. John Smith.

Mrs. Pearl Olund and Philip Tay or were in New Bern Tuesday. Mrs. M. C. Adams and J. C. Adams were in New Bern Friday on business.

Mrs. Pearl Olund, Philip Taylor and Johnnie Olund motored to Bachelor recently to visit Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Taylor.

Willie Miller, of Hyattsville, Maryland, came Wednesday for a visit with Mrs. Carl H. Morton. Mrs. Miller has been here for three

Rudolph Cheek, who has been returned to Norfolk, Virginia. Mrs. William Noe and Mrs. Joe Sadler Morton visited Mr. Morton Wednesday at the Morehead City

Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Joel Davis and Miss ed from Asheville where they at- evening for Mrs. Alton Waters tended the wedding of their son and brother, Henry Davis, to Miss Thelma Ball. Mr. and Mrs.

Davis will live at Statesville, N. C. Mr. and Mrs. Xenophon Mason sales and son, Charles, of Marshallberg, spent Thursday here with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mason.

Misses Elizabeth Morton and Ca therine Noe and Willie Miller motored to Morehead City Thursday morning to see Joe Morton at the hospital. Mrs. Morton accompanied them and spent the day. Miss Mary Lou Mason is spending the weekend at Chapel Hill with friends. Mrs. Vernon Lee Hancock was in

Beaufort Friday afternoon. Mrs. Roy Mason, Mrs. Xenophon

Jane Mason motored to Beaufort Thursday afternoon.

Mesdames Raymond Ball, George

W. Ball, Pearl Olund, Emma Oglesby, Clyde Taylor, Misses Jean Ball and Eleanor Taylor attended the nor of Mrs. Alton Waters, the forshower for Miss Pauline Mason. bride-elect Wednesday evening at Mrs. North Sabiston's at Core Creek.

Mrs. Charles P. Cheek, of Yanceyville, N. C., is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. T. Cheek, who is very

Dr. Theodore Salter, of Beaufort, was here Friday evening to see Mrs. Cheek,

Mrs. Emma Oglesby and Mrs. Charlie Bell were in Beaufort Friday on business. Mr. and Mrs. Kuch Williams were in Beaufort Saturday morn-

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Taylor and daughter, Misses Mary and Mattie, and grandson, of near Beaufort, Mrs. James B. Becton and Mrs. Dee Jones of Beaufort, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Taylor and children Mary Elizabeth Davis have return- of North River were here Friday

> Ralph G. Temple and Cicero W Taylor motored to Kinston to take tobacco and attend the opening

Ralph H. Lupton, of Raleigh, was here Thursday afternoon to see re-

Philip Taylor and Douglas Williams attended tobacco sales Friday at Greenville. Mr. and Mrs. E. C. McLawhorn spent the weekend with relatives and Mrs. Joseph W. Fulcher. at Core City Terry Witherington, of Vanceboro, is visiting his grandmother, Mrs. W. C. Williams. Mr. and Mrs. Burney L. Witherington and children. Phil, Beverly parents, Mr. and Mrs. Damon Fuland Terry, of Vanceboro, passed cher.

route to Harkers Island.

useful gifts from her friends.

The following were present from the community. Mesdames Carlton and Clyde Taylor, Rufus W. Ward

Raymond Ball, W. Kuch Williams,

Walter Guy Temple, James R.

Ward, A. N. Bell, Willie Bradshaw.

Luke Turner, Jurney Conner, Pearl

Olund, W. C. Williams, Misses Jean

The holtesses assisted by Misses

Wards served an iced drink, cook-

Ball, Sue and Nellie Ward and Eleanor Jarman.

Mr. and Mrs. Damon Fulcher. Mr. and Mrs. Guion Garner and On Friday evening, August 20 Mesdames Vernon Lee Hancock and George Jones were hostesses Sunday evening. for a miscellaneous shower in hogil Styron and children Lorraine mer Miss Elva Taylor, of New Bern, at Mrs. Luther Taylor's.

and Elizabeth of Davis spent Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Wel A large number of friends were don Fulcher. resent to enjoy the evening with the honoree and hostesses. Mrs. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bullock of Hancock was leader of the games. Cherry Point, spent several day

Mrs. Waters received lovely and with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Guy of Atlantic, spent a few days with son of Davis visited relatives here

Mrs. Joe Williams and Mrs. Vir.

Mr. Leckter Lewis of Kinston visited relatives here Sunday. Miss Nellie G. Hamilton of At lantic spent Sunday with Miss Mar gie Lane Mason. Rev. Walton Guthrie of Fay etteville spent a few days with hip mother Mrs. Mattie Guthrie.

Miss Fay Styron spent last week visiting her Uncle Dr. Luther Ful cher and family of Beaufort. Miss Dare Fulcher spent Monday and Tuesday with her grand par ents Mr. and Mrs. Joe Williams of ies, nuts and cards STACY Crab point.

Miss Carolyn Daniels, returned me after spending several weeks with her uncles, Mr. Horace Fulcher and family of Winston Salem and Mr. Hubert Fulcher and family of Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Fulcher and family of Wilson spent the Service. week-end with their parents Mr.

Miss Jean Winburn of Wilson lyn Daniels.

Mrs. Leslie Wade of Morehead City spent several days with her ed sweet clover with beef cattle

Davidson County Farmers Grow Good Clover Crop

LEXINGTON - The sweet cla ver crop in Davidson county is unusually good this year, reports and children of Winston Salem E. S. Stokes, assistant county agent and Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Fulcher for the State College Extension

He said farmers are using the crop not only for soil improvement but also for grazing purposes, and spent the weekend with Miss Caro- many of them plan to harvest a seed crop this year. Leon Stokes, Linwood, has green continuously since about March 15. He plans to keep the stock on the Mason, Misses Mary Lou and Betty through Wednesday afternoon en- Mrs. Billy Smith and daughter field until it is plowed for when

Now!

latives

Local Company brings to the people of Carteret and Craven counties the nationally famous

Low-Cost, Lifetime ALUMINUM AWNINGS

Only Koolvents Bring You ALL These Advantages--COOL COMFORT ADDED BEAUTY RAINPROOF WINDPROOF ECONOMY FIREPROOF PERMANENCE

never look shabby; can't rip, rot, wear out, warp or split!

Because their outstanding features are fully protected by

For residences, these famous awnings are ideally suited for terraces, door coverings, windows, porches. Among their many commercial and industrial usages are office and shop windows, doors, store fronts, loading platforms, canopies, outdoor displays. Every Koolvent Awning is custombuilt for its individual purpose, with choice of sparkling, long-lasting enamel colors or smart natural-finish aluminum. Koolvent Awnings are guaranteed unconditionally as to workmanship and materials. They invite the most rigid comparison. Before you buy any awning, get full details of Koolvent's many advantages - find out how surprisingly little they cost. Terms. Out-of-town orders solicited.

patents, they are found in no other awnings.

of replacement or repairs,

14

Re de 89

Koolvent Lifetime 'Awnings provide the only complete answer to all awning problems of home, store, office or industrial plant. Made of rust-resisting metal sheets with ventilated roof and ends, they give year-round protection . . . bring temperatures as much as 20 per cent cooler in summer add to distinctive appearance of any building protect buildings and furnishings from storm damage reduce fire hazards eliminate necessity Koolvents are permanent as only metal can be! They

FOR QUOTATIONS WITHOUT OBLIGATION, SEE OR PHONE

OF BEAUFORT Division of: Shel-Ton Industries

310 MARSH ST.

PHONE B 579-6