Sanderson-Davis Vows Pledged In Candlelight Ceremony Friday

Straits Methodist church was the scene of a beautiful ceremony Friday evening when Miss Audrey Beryl Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julian Davis, became the bride of Mr. William Hugh Sanderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sanderson of Rocky Point.

Rev. Tilley, of Morehead City, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The altar was banked with floor baskets of white gladioli, fern and snow-on-the-mountain against a background of candlelight and greenery. The ferns were marked with white satin bows.

Wedding music was furnished by Mrs. Gerald Whitehurst, who also accompanied Mrs. Ruth Webb Bailey, who sang "Oh Sweet Mystery of Life." The Lord's prayer was used as part of the benediction.

The bride and bridegroom entered the church together. The bride wore a gown of blue chiffon which featured a bertha of chantilly lace. Her shoulder length veil fell from a half hat of chiffon and rosebuds. She wore elbow length gloves of matching lace and carried an arm bouquet of white asters tied with white satin.

Her matron of honor was Mrs. Matney Davis whose gown was of sunshine yellow chiffon. She wore a band of yellow flowers in her hair, yellow veil fell to the shoulder. She carried an arm bouquet of pink asters and pink satin ribbon. Mr. Marvin Nelson, of Raleigh, served as best man, for Mr. Sanderson, and ushers were Joe Pinner, cousin of the bride and Thomas Nelson Wilson.

The bride's mother wore a aqua crepe dress and navy accessories.

Pre-Nuptial Parties Given For Miss Audrey Davis

Miss Audrey Davis was honored at a miscellaneous shower given by Mesdames L. B. Chadwick, Matney Davis, Sam Leffers and Margaret Johnson at the home of Mrs. Chadwick, on Tuesday night.

The honoree and her mother were presented corsages of red roses on their arrival.

Mixed summer flowers decorated the home, while white and green carried out the color motif in the dining room.

Lime punch with green and white block cake was served to the thirty-eight guests of the honoree.

Miss Davis received many very lovely gifts, including her pattern in china, crystal and silver.

Miss Davis was honored with a cake-cutting on Thursday evening, following the rehearsal. Mrs. L. J. Pinner gave the cake cutting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Julian Davis.

The house was decorated with mixed summer flowers and snow-on-the-mountain.

The dining table was covered with a lace cloth. Lighted tapers in double candlesticks, threw a mellow glow over the two tiered cake which was decorated in white and green, topped with miniature wedding bells and dove.

After the bride and groom cut the first slice, the many friend of the honoree were served lime punch and cake.
