Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Daniels' Daughter Married Wednesday

In a ceremony marked with simplicity and reverence, Miss Verona Daniels, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Burton Daniels, of Beaufort, became the bride of James Earl Danieley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Danieley, of Burlington, on Wednesday, September first, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon in the Ann Street Methodist church. Dr. D. J. Bowden, dean of Eloa college, officiated at the double ring ceremony, which took place before a background of magnolia and candelabra intertwined with ivy. The altar was covered with clematis, and baskets of white gladioli stood on the floor.

Mrs. John Butler, organist, gave a program of nuptial music, and Miss Jeanne Meredith of Virgilina, Va., soloist, sang "Always" and "Because."

The bride and groom entered the church together. The bride wore a wedding gown of ivory slipper satin with a sweetheart neckline. It was fashioned in princess style with long sleeves ending in points over the hands, tiny covered buttons extending below the waist in the back, and a full circular train. Her finger tip veil of illusion fell from a tiara of orange blossoms. She carried a sweetheart-shaped nosegay of roses centered with a white purple-throated orchid. Her only ornament was a string of pearls, gift of the groom.

Miss Mildred Daniels was maid of honor and her sister's only attendant. She wore a pink georgette gown over taffeta, and carried an arm bouquet of white chrysanthemums with white ribbons. Her head dress was a band of white carnations.

Mr. Howard Danieley of Burlington was best man for his brother, and ushers were Burton Daniels, Jr., brother of the bride and J. W. Blanehard of Burlington.

Mrs. Daniels, mother of the bride, wore a gray crepe dress with black accessories, and a corsage of pink carnations.

Mrs. Danieley, mother of the groom, wore a black dress with matching accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Immediately after the ceremony the bride's parents entertained at a reception at their home on Lennoxville road for close friends, relatives and out-of-town guests.

Guests were greeted at the door by Miss Jeanne Meredith. The receiving line was composed of the parents of the bride and groom and the bridal couple.

Mrs. James Boyd presided over the bride's breakfast. Mrs. Steve Zucka, assisted by Miss Jeanne Daniels, served the cake, and Mrs. Fred Garner and Miss Mildred Daniels, presided over the punch bowl. Good-bys were said to Mrs. J. D. Bowden.

Out of Town Guests
Out of town guests here for the wedding included Mrs. Gus Meden, of Jersey City, N. J., Miss Jeanne

Meredith, of Virgilina, Va., Mrs. Earl B. Roberts, of New York, Mr. and Mrs. Mack Lupton, of New Bern, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Mansfield, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Danieley, Mrs. G. A. Danieley, the Misses Ava, Frances and F. Y. Danieley and Miss Betty Jean Lineberry, all of Burlington, and Dr. and Mrs. D. J. Bowden of Eloa.

After the reception the bridal couple left on a wedding trip. For traveling the bride changed to a gray suit with black accessories. Her corsage was the orchid from her bridal bouquet. After Sept. 6 they will be at home at Eloa college.

The former Miss Daniels was valedictorian of the Beaufort High school, class of 1940. She was formerly secretary to the president of Eloa college. She is a member of the senior class of Eloa college, a member of Delta Upsilon Kappa sorority and secretary of the Spanish club.

Mr. Danieley is a graduate of Eloa college, where he is assistant professor of chemistry. He will complete his masters degree at UNC this spring. He is president of the Eloa chapter of the Society for Advancement of Science and presented a paper at the N. C. Academy of Science which was held at Davidson college last spring.

Bridal Shower Given or Miss Verona Daniels,

Miss Verona Daniels, bride-elect of September 1, was complimented Friday evening, August 27, at a shower given by her sister, Miss Mildred Daniels, at the home of her parents, with approximately 35 guests present.

The Daniels home was lovely with zinnias and asters used throughout the house. Several unique bridal games and bingo were played after which the bride-elect opened her gifts.

Cake, nuts, mints and punch were served. Miss Daniels was presented a corsage of asters and a gift of silver in her chosen pattern by the hostess.

Miss Margaret House Honored in Marshallberg

Miss Margaret House, September bride-elect, was complimented with a miscellaneous shower by Mrs. Alfred Walence on Thursday evening, August twenty-sixth at her home in Marshallberg.

Mrs. George Moore and Mrs. Grant Lewis greeted the guests and presented them with miniature corsages.

Approximately fifty guests were present for the occasion and enjoyed games of bingo.

The hostess presented Miss House with a lovely corsage of white pom-pom chrysanthemums and roses of st aron. From a white basket entwined with ivy and white flowers, the honoree opened many lovely gifts of crystal, silver and china in her chosen patterns.

Mrs. Alfred Walence invited the guests into the dining room. A two tier wedding cake reflected on a mirror, centered the dining table covered with a hand crocheted table cloth. Lovely arrangements of white zinnias and gladioli with touches of green carried out the bridal motif. Glowing tapers threw a soft light throughout the house.

Miss Maida Moore served the cake. Ice cream, nuts and mints, served by Madames George Moore and Grant Lewis, further carried out the color scheme.

Out-of-town guests were Madames W. L. House, mother of the bride-elect, William W. Arrington, William Arrington, Jr., Myon

Mrs. Cheek died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carlyle Taylor, following a long period of ill health and two weeks of critical illness. Interment was in Harlowe cemetery.
A native of Orange county, the daughter of John C. and Frances Carden, of Cedar Grove, she became the wife of the Rev. Mr. Cheek in 1897. They moved to Harlowe in 1921 and made it their permanent home. They lived for short periods of time at Stumpy Point, Ocracoke, and Atlantic.
Mrs. Cheek was active in church and community work until her health failed. She was a devoted wife and labored earnestly with her husband on their charges.
She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Carlyle Taylor, Mrs. Ivey Taylor, both of Harlowe, Mrs. William Ingram, of Kenansville, two sons, Rudolph Cheek, Norfolk, Va., Paul Cheek, North Adams, Mass., a brother, J. E. Carden, Washington, D. C., 14 grandchildren and one great grandchild.
The pallbearers were her five grandsons and one nephew. Members of the Women's society and the Sunday School class had charge of the flowers.
Glen Presnell's 54-yard field goal is the longest in National Football League History. It was kicked Oct. 7, 1934 and gave the Detroit Lions fans a 3-0 victory over Green Bay.
