

County Schools Open Today, Health Board Decrees

Morehead City High School Officials Turn Thumbs Down on '48 Football

Dr. John Morris Tells Rotarians Of Sylva Meeting

Concrete evidence that success has resulted from Chamber of Commerce efforts to publicize Morehead City's attractions was observed at the recent statewide Chamber of Commerce convention, Dr. John W. Morris, chamber president, told Rotarians at their weekly meeting Thursday night.

Farm Bureau Hears D. S. Coltrane

Commissioner of agriculture, D. S. Coltrane, is pictured standing left above, shortly before addressing members of the Carteret County Farm Bureau Wednesday night at the court house.

Chamber of Commerce Executives Favor Improved Port Facilities

69 New Books Added to Library

Sixty-nine new books have been added to the Carteret County Public Library, Mrs. L. A. (Jack) Oakley, has announced. Forty of these books are fiction, 20 non-fiction, and nine mystery novels.

Story Sessions End at Library

Twenty-six children attended the story hour sessions held at Webb Memorial library during July and August, according to a report by Mrs. E. A. Council, librarian.

Six Men From This Area Enlist in Armed Forces

Two men from Carteret county and one from Ocracoke recently enlisted in the regular Army and three have enlisted in the Air Force, according to an announcement received today from the New Bern recruiting station.

Miss Avery, Beaufort, Receives Appointment

Miss Dorothy Avery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Avery, Turner street, Beaufort, has been appointed by the State Library board as supervisor of all libraries in the counties of Hertford, Bertie, and Gates.

10,000-Acre Fire Brought Under Control Saturday

Area Between Long Bay And Turnagdin Bay Attacked by Flames

A fire covering 10,000 acres on the peninsula between Long bay and Turnagdin bay in this county was brought under control Saturday when state foresters and a platoon of Marines from Cherry Point went into the swampy area by boat. The flames were controlled by use of back pack pumps.

Child, 7, Drowns In North River

Juanita Simpson, a colored child, 7 years old, drowned at about 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon in North river at the site of the old North River bridge.

Danville Family Makes Home Here

Recent newcomers to Carteret county are the McKays of the Beaufort-Morehead City causeway. Formerly of Danville, Va., they came here in hopes of the seacoast climate bettering the health of their son, Ray, 21, who is suffering from rheumatic fever.

Water Flows Again From Front Street Well

Sam Darling, after a morning's work yesterday, succeeded in opening the well in front of the Esso Service station, Front street, Beaufort.

Beatrice and David Talbot Can Boast of 10 Grandparents

Two youngsters in Carteret county, Beatrice and David Talbot, have 10 "grandparents," five of whom are Grandmas and five Grandpas. And this most unusual feat all of this is that all 10 of the grandparents are now living.

1,266 Men Register for Induction; County Offices Closed Saturday

Down East Power to Go Off Twice This Week

The electrical power from Beaufort east will be off from 9 to 11 a.m. tomorrow morning (Wednesday) and from 9 to 11 a.m. Thursday, George Stovall, manager of Tide Water Power company's local office, announced yesterday.

Farmers to See Demonstration On Sweet Potatoes

The farm of Thomas Oglesby, Crab Point, will be the scene of a demonstration on the digging and handling of sweet potatoes, prior to storage, on Friday morning at 9:30, R. M. Williams, county agent, has announced.

Clyde Jones Elected to State Office

Clyde Jones, of Clyde Jones Gas and Appliance company, Morehead City, is pictured above in his office following his return from Greensboro last week where he was elected vice-president of the newly-formed North Carolina Liquefied Petroleum Gas corporation.

Boys becoming 18 are required to register within five days after their 18th birthday.

Boys becoming 18 are required to register within five days after their 18th birthday. Taylor declared. Taylor also emphasized the requirement that changes of address be registered with the draft board. There is a penalty for failure to notify changes of address, he said.

Combat Transport Leaves for Pacific

The USS George Clymer which made port here Saturday morning, the first United States port it had been in since Dec. 15, 1947, left Sunday afternoon for the Panama Canal zone and the west coast.

Men Agree to Division Of Satter Path Fisheries

The recent dispute over fisheries along the southern beach of Bogue Banks was settled by dividing the area under dispute between the Belhaven Fish and Oyster company and the Satter Path fishing crew.

Tide Table

Table with columns for HIGH, Tuesday, Sept. 21, and LOW, showing tide times for Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday.