

Tidewater Champs To Meet All-Star Nine

Marshallberg to Encounter Kinston in Twin Match Tomorrow And Sunday

Strong aggregations of the season's baseball stars will be assembled when the Tidewater League champions from Marshallberg clash with the Kinston All-Stars in a post-season two-game series at Smyrna tomorrow and Sunday afternoon at 2:30.

Admission will be 25 and 50 cents.

Hurling for Marshallberg will be "Ace" Harris, winner of three games in the recent Tidewater League playoffs; James Webb of Morehead City; Clarence Salter who pitched for Sanford in the Tobacco League; Pate and McKamey, Marshallberg standbys.

Barry Jones, who played for Anderson, S. C., and Bobbie Wilson, formerly of the Baltimore Orioles, will be stand-outs on the newly formed Kinston club which brings together many star players from that area.

Others on the All-Star nine, besides Jones and Wilson, will include: Sam McLowhorn, Pete Peters, Lou Herrington, Clay Proom, in-cent Jones, "Lefty" Gouldin, Bob Cohen, Tommie Pritchard.

Hunger's Labor Lost
LONDON — (AP) — Miss Elizabeth Diaper arrived in food short England from Nairobi with a precious package. She had flown nearly 5,000 miles holding it carefully on her lap.

In Buckingham Palace Road she dropped it—and a double-decker bus squelched over a pound of butter, a pound of tea, a pineapple, and a dozen eggs.

Beaufort High Cagers Begin Workouts, Ten First Stringers Report To Drill

Ten first stringers and seven hopefuls met with Coach T. H. McQuaid in the high school gym Wednesday in the first day of workouts for the 1948-49 Beaufort cage squad. The coach dismissed his boys after a peppy 30-minute workout at calisthenics and promised them more of the same every afternoon after school until they are in top condition.

Conditioning exercises only will be the rule for awhile, the coach said, as the boys have not strictly adhered to a summer "fitness" program which they followed individually. Also, with no regular game scheduled before December, they will not be given the ball too early to grow tired of it before competition begins.

First string men out were: Charles Stuart, Jimmie Piner, Howard Fowdre, Jimmie Fowdre, A. C. Blankenship, Alton Lewis, Charles Owens, Julian Austin, William Sammons and Cedric Beachem.

The Beaufort girls, under Miss Shirley Johnson, have already begun handling the ball. Girls' workouts started Monday, and a maximum of 25 girls have turned out, Miss Johnson said. Practice games are being played, with the girls having the floor first before the boys begin.

In Morehead City Coach Gannon Talbert reported that boys' and girls' practice will get underway next week.

Marsh Hen Hunt Ends With Mullet in the Bag

Amen, Brother Ben,
Aimed at a goose
And shot a hen.
The aim was marsh hens but the hunting expedition ended up with a roe mullet in the bag, in this case.

George Stovall and Capt. Alden Guthrie, both of Morehead City, were hunting marsh hens in Captain Alden's boat Wednesday afternoon on Hog Hill creek, west of the Atlantic Beach bridge.

Bouncing up and down out of the water in front of them, so much that Captain Alden couldn't stand it any more, was a big fat mullet.

So he took aim and fired and that was the last jump that Mama Mullet ever made. She weighed 3 pounds, measured more than a foot, and made mighty good eating for supper Wednesday night.

To avoid that run-down feeling, cross streets carefully.
