of planning and make recommendations. Beaufort Jaycees sponsored the creation of the board as the necessary first step in expediting their twin projects of town zoning and extension of city limits.

Charles Hassell read to the commissioners the ordinance creating the Chapel Hill board, and Robert Stephens read a letter recommending the step from the head of the Department of City and Regional Planning of the state university. Sewer Fee Established

The commissioners voted to charge property owners a fee to cut in new sewer lines. The fee will be a $25 minimum on paved streets and $15 on dirt streets.

Fire chief Julian Duncan requested a pay raise for two firemen from $150 to $165. The request was referred to the financial committee

Oil Blaze Up in Burner At L. A. Oakley Home

An oil burner scare at the home of L. A. Oakley on Live Oak st. brought one fire truck from the Beaufort fire department Monday at 3:30 p.m. The blaze was brought under control before the truck arrived, however.

Assistant Fire Chief Julius, Jr. reported that Carl Hatsell was installing a home heating unit when the oil burner flooded and blazed up.
