

Lejeune Eleven Tackles Sailors

CAMP LEJEUNE, Oct. 14 — The Lejeune Marines, jubilant over their 42-0 win last week over Marine Barracks, Norfolk Naval Station, will face the USS Mississippi eleven on Sunday, October 17. The game was previously scheduled for Saturday October 16.

Coch Joe Missar is confident of a win Sunday, as his entire squad will be ready for play. Tom Dawson who played an outstanding game against Quantico, was injured in that game but will be ready Sunday, as will Joe Vosmik and Umberto Gigli, all starting line men. The regular back field, with Frank Maksin, "Big" Higgs, Dick Stein, and James Ptak, which proved too much for Norfolk, will again take the field for the opening kickoff.

Burglary Takes the Cake
KANSAS CITY—(AP) — Nine girl friends of little Miss Jean Gerard gathered at her home for a birthday slumber party. Before consuming the refreshments the group attended a movie. On their return they discovered that the house had been entered by a prowler. He took one item—the birthday cake.

Shrine Bowl Grid Classic Receives Endorsement and Commendation of Governor

RALEIGH, Oct. 15 — Governor Cherry has added his endorsement to a football game scheduled in Raleigh on October 29.

In an official announcement from his office, the Governor called attention to the game between Methodist Orphanage of Raleigh and Oxford Orphanage to be played at State College's Roldick Stadium.

In commending Sudan Temple for its sponsorship of the game, Cherry pointed to "the very worthwhile cause which merits the support by all North Carolinians."

The Governor, who is also a shriner, will attend the game.

All women except one priestess were forbidden to enter the enclosure at the ancient Greek Olympic games.

The Circus Maximus in which Roman games and gladiatorial contests were held is estimated to have seated 350,000 spectators.
