Mrs. Alice K. Brinson Is Wed To Earl G. Garner

A beautiful and impressive double ring ceremony was conducted by Rev. Hubert Morris at the First Baptist church, in New Bern, Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock when Miss Alice Kathleen Brinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Brinson of Croatan, became the bride of Earl G. Garner, son of Mrs. Kenneth L. Garner and the late Mr. Garner of Newport.

The church was beautifully decorated in fern and palms as background to standards of white gladioli and chrysanthemums, also many branched candelabra with lighted tapers.

Wedding music was supplied by Miss Elizabeth Pearce, at the organ who played, "Because," "O Perfect Love" and the traditional wedding marches and the benediction.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a cocktail gown of white duchess satin, fashioned with a fitted bodice, full skirt with four pleats on each side of the front, which fitted over a hoop. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a white prayer book with a purple throated orchid.

Mrs. Lloyd G. Brinson, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron-of-honor and only attendant. She wore a two piece cocktail dress with a fitted jacket with matching buttons and full box-pleated skirt of fallé taffeta in the new shade of cyclamen, and used black accessories. She carried a bouquet of gold chrysanthemums tied with rainbow ribbon and wore matching flowers in her hair.

The bridegroom had as his best man, Claude Garner of Camp Lejeune. The ushers were Lloyd Brinson of New Bern and Carlton Garner of Newport.

Mrs. Brinson, mother of the bride, wore a black silk crepe dress with matching accessories, and a corsage of red roses. Mrs. Garner, bridegroom's mother, chose a multi-color black crepe dress with black accessories and a corsage of red roses.

Immediately after the ceremony a steak dinner and cake cutting were held at Hamilton's banquet room for the close friends and relatives of the bride and bridegroom. The room was decorated in bamboo and mixed fall flowers. The three tier wedding cake topped with a miniature dove with double rings, was the center piece for the table where the bride and bridegroom were seated. After the bride and bridegroom cut the first slice of cake, Mrs. Carlton Garner of Newport, cut the cake which was served the guests.

The bride and bridegroom left immediately after the reception for Niagara Falls, Canada and back by the Great Lakes where they will visit the bride's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Ivey, Jr. The bride changed to a Rubytone gabardine suit with black accessories and her orchid lifted from her prayer book.

Mrs. Garner is a graduate of New Bern High school and St.

were attractively arranged throughout the home. Guest high, tissues, was won by Mrs. Wagner, while Mrs. Bob Williams was high for club. The hostess served cokes with cheese-wees and candy. Mrs. Bob Shaw will entertain the club next week.

Approximately 40 young friends were present and played various games during the afternoon. Refreshments were ice cream with cup cakes and lollypops in the Halloween motif with Halloween party hats as favors.

Wesleyan Guild Members Hear Program On Alaska

The Wesleyan Guild met at the home of Mrs. Clyde Willis on Monday evening with Miss Lil Morris as assistant hostess.

Eighteen members answered to roll call and devotionals were given by Mrs. Bill Cottingham. The president, Mrs. Fred Lewis, presided and read a letter from Mrs. W. N. Davis, of Goldsboro, district secretary regarding various activities related to the Guild.

Members voted to feed one underprivileged child at the school lunch room; the person chosen to be picked by teachers who are members of the Guild, Mrs. A. B. Roberts was named chairman of "Status of Women."

Miss Ruth Willis then presented a program "Alaska Among the Northern Lights." This program was given to give the ladies a picture of Alaska, its geography, people and history and to show the value of missionary work in different parts of the country.

At the conclusion of the meeting the hostesses served ice cream with homemade cake.

Mrs. Leslie Davis Speaks To Literary and Art Club

Mrs. Leslie Davis, of Beaufort, was guest speaker at the regular monthly meeting of the Literary and Art department of the Woman's Club on Tuesday evening. The club met for a delicious dinner at the Carteret Recreation center at 7 o'clock.

A short business session was conducted after which Mrs. Davis gave a discussion of art and the important part it plays in the education of young people. With her discussion she displayed many of her own works.

New officers were installed by Mrs. D. J. Eure and they are: President, Mrs. George Stovall, vice-president, Mrs. W. C. Carlton and secretary-treasurer, Mrs. C. N. Bennett.

It was announced by the club that plans are being made to sponsor a cooking school at the Recreation center during the month of November.

ADJUSTMENTS OF RURAL RATES REQUESTED
This Company has found it necessary to petition the North Carolina Utilities Commission to adjust its present schedule of rates for rural or multiparty telephone service. This petition, which was for an upward adjustment of .75c for rural residence service and $1.00 for rural business service, was necessary because of the continued increase in cost of providing additional service and maintaining present services. The present rates are substantially those which were in effect on July 1, 1936.
A hearing of this petition has been set for November 5, 1948 at 10:00 A.M. at the Utilities Commission Office in Raleigh, North Carolina.
