Plumbers Revise

Plumbing Laws

At a meeting of Morehead City plumbers in the mayor's office

Thursday night the town's present plumbing code was slightly revised and a request drafted to ask

Morehead City commissioners to E. Stamey Davis, plumbing in spector for the town, and A. D.

Fulford, county sanitarian, were present. The meeting was called and conducted by Mayor G. W

"Some residents were flagrantly violating the plumbing code," de clared the mayor yesterday, "and this meeting was aimed toward better enforcement and bringing about better coordination between the plumbers and the inspector."

He reminded plumbers at the meeting that compliance with the code was most beneficial to them.

and in the bargain, safeguarded public health. He said the plumbers were unanimously in favor of Other witnesses were Osborne Pake, Thomas Turner, taxi driv-ers, and Fred Pittman, who turned in the fire alarm.

Present at the hearing were Charles W. Lewis and C. C. Duncan, deputy commissioners of in-surance from Raleigh. Mr. Lewis, following the hearing, commended the police and fire department for heir efforts in investigating the burning.

In other cases before the mayor yesterday Harold E. Willis was charged with being drunk but failed to appear and a warrant was ssued charging him with failure to answer to charges. W. C. Cottingham was charged with malicious use of the courts by bringing charges against a party and then failing to appear to testify.

Beware Coughs From Common Colds That HANG ON Creomulsion relieves promptly because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes.
