Each Society Protests Against Filming of Passion

SCHIAFFHAUSEN, Switzerland — (AP) — The executive committee of the International Bach Society here has protested the contemplated production of a film based on the Matthew Passion of Johann Sebastian Bach.
 The committee said Bach's work written for choir, orchestra and organ, was "one of the most solemn works in all music and should remain untouched." Ernst Morischka, Vienna producer, was reported to be planning production of the film.
 British statesman Cecil John Rhodes went to Natal in 1870—the year diamonds were discovered in the Kimberly fields—and the next year struck it rich. Before he was 19 he was financially independent
