Dr. C. V. Willis' Car Skids on Highway 70

An accident five miles beyond Havelock on highway 70 resulted in an estimated $400 to $500 damage to the automobile of Dr. C. V. Willis, of Morehead City, Thursday morning. Dr. Willis luckily escaped only with bruises.

Dr. Willis was traveling west on the highway at about 8:15 a.m. in a rainstorm when the rear wheels of his car, a 1947 Plymouth sedan, struck a slippery spot in the highway. The car swung completely around, struck the dirt shoulder on the highway, and skidded down a steep embankment, turning over one and a half times in the process. No one else was in the car, besides the doctor. He was bruised considerably but received no serious injuries.
