The juniors are working hard on the Junior-Senior banquet and since most of the material for decorating the gym has arrived, they will begin working on that soon. The waiters and waitresses have been chosen and are as follows: Doris Avery, Mary Buttry, Charlene Harrel, Virginia Hassel, Fay Mason, Virginia Davis, Geneva Hardesty, Jessie Dixon, Barbara Piner, Lenora Davis, Pattie Jean Lewis.
Jimmy Wheatley, Larry Moore, Harold Willis, Henry Safrit, Joel Cannon, Herbert Mason, Charles Pake, Andrew Searle, James Holland, Murry Pittman and Ivan Goodwin.

The juniors have done several things to raise money to give this banquet. They sold magazine subscriptions, Christmas candy, have given dances, selected Miss Joyce Ann Willis as Miss Football of 1951 and 1952, and are bringing in dues of $5 per person.
All members of the 4-H club will come to school dressed in their uniforms Friday in honor of 4-H week.
Ann Noe had the Beta club program Monday night and her topic was "Fears." Drinks and cookies were served after the business and then dancing was enjoyed until time to go home.

The cast of the senior play, "The Mix From Missouri," follows: Ross Radley, played by John Lynch; Mrs. Harriet Radley, Nancy Russell; Marrie Tyler, Connie Lewis; Vic Tyler, Bobby Willis; Gwen Tyler, Edith Lewis; Mimi Vandemer, Ellen Norcum; Orbert Vandemer, Bobby Safrit; Jackie Clemmons, Patsy Hardesty; Cousin Clytie, Jean Dixon; Pete Waldron, Gary Copeland; Ammonia Fitts, Iris Dudley; Eucalyptus Jones, Jimmy Smith.
