Series of Parties Honor Bride

Miss Barbara Joyce Willis, who was married last night to Alton Brooks Vick, was guest of honor at five parties recently.

Mrs. Herbert Thornton was hostess at the cake cutting at her home on Bridges street Wednesday night.

In the dining room the chandelier was trimmed with magnolia leaves and white wedding bells. The dining table was covered with a cutwork cloth and on one end of the table was the three-tiered wedding cake which was cut by the bride-elect.

Crystal candelabra and white tapers were also used and gardenias were banked around the punch bowl. Mrs. Thornton served the cake and Miss Peggy Leary the punch. Nuts and minis were served by the honorary bridesmaids, the Misses Patricia Willis and Ann Darden Webb.

The bridesmaids and other members of the wedding party were entertained at a luncheon in the Ocean King hotel at Atlantic Beach Tuesday. Present were the bride-elect, her mother, Mrs. A. B. Vick, sr., Miss Shirley Farrior, Miss Joyce Vick, Miss Sandra Willis, Mrs. S. A. Horton and Mrs. Jack Moye of Greenville.

Miss Willis gave Mrs. Moye, who was celebrating her 10th wedding anniversary that day, a gift. All attendants were given presents by the bride-elect—gold perfume dispensers for their purse. Each was enclosed in a satin bag.

place cards marked places at the table.

Mrs. Jack Moye honored Miss Willis Monday with a bridge party at the home of her sister, Mrs. S. A. Horton. Spring flowers were used throughout the house.

High score winner was Mrs. Jesse Lewis who received a novelty flower pot. Miss Peggy Leary was given second high prize, bath powder. Consolation prize went to Mrs. Rilla Hughes Norwood, earrings.

The hostess served a congealed salad and open face sandwiches. Miss Willis was given a gift in her pattern of china.

Mrs. George Roberts Wallace honored Miss Willis at a coffee party Saturday morning at her home on Evans street. Twenty-five guests were present. Miss Willis, her mother and the mother of the groom, Mrs. A. B. Vick, were given carnation corsages.

The living room was decorated with yellow gladioli and the dining table with feverfew. A handsome cutwork cloth was spread on the table and candles tied with ribbon and tulle completed the picture.

Miss Willis was presented with a bon bon spoon in her pattern of silver. The hostess served ham biscuits, cheese wafers, open face sandwiches, bridal cakes and coffee.

She was honored at a bridge party Friday night by Mrs. A. T. Leary and daughter, Peggy. A miniature cake topped with a bride and groom marked the honoree's place at the table. This was surrounded by four gladioli and greenery.

Corsages were presented to Miss Willis and her mother, Mrs. Bruce Willis, as they entered the door. The house was beautifully decorated with pink and white gladioli.

Mrs. Virginia Moye was high score bridge winner and Mrs. S. A. Horton was second. They were presented with bisque figurines and a milk glass vase. Miss Ann Mills won a hand painted ash tray as the winner of the contest on advice to the bride.

Little Kathy Chalk gave out talleys to the 18 guests, each with a white gladioli corsage on it. Miss Willis was presented with a place setting in her china.

The hostesses served fruit salad, open face sandwiches, cheese biscuits, olives and tea.

Daughters Honor Parents On Wedding Anniversary

Mrs. R. L. Turnage and Miss Florence Danielson were hostesses at a buffet dinner Monday evening honoring their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Danielson, on their 20th wedding anniversary.

The dining room was decorated with gladioli, zinnias and feverfew. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Willis of Greensboro were the only out-of-town guests. The occasion was also the birthday of the Rev. R. T. Willis, jr., and Mrs. Danielson presented him with a cake.

The Danielson's were given a silver covered dish and a silver sugar and cream set.

Grade Reported

Miss Billie Louise Gaskins has received the highest grade in the majorettes' examination held Wednesday at the school, announced Miss Mary Lou Lee of Williamston. Miss Lee conducted a two-week school and taught twirling, strutting and street routines.

Celebrate Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Pritchard of Swansboro celebrated their 49th wedding anniversary Tuesday by having dinner at the Sanitary restaurant. While there they received a basket of lavender gladioli. The Pritchards expect to celebrate their Golden anniversary next year in Winston-Salem with relatives.

The marriage of Miss Barbara Joyce Willis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bruce Willis to Mr. Alton Brooks Vick, junior, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Vick was solemnized last evening at 8 o'clock in the First Baptist church. The Rev. R. T. Willis, junior, uncle of the bride, officiated.

Amid arrangements of mixed summer flowers, Mrs. John T. Bunn, soloist and Mrs. George Mizeko, organist, presented a program of nuptial music. Mrs. Bunn sang I Love Thee and Through the Years.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of nylon organza with a standing collar of venetian lace and a V neckline. Her train was chapel length and she wore a gift of the groom, a gold and pearl crescent pin. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a bonnet of matching venetian lace.

The bride carried a ballerina bouquet of white orchids. Miss Joyce Vick, sister of the groom, was maid of honor and wore a pink embroidered gown of organdy. She carried a cascade bouquet of mixed spring flowers tied with variegated ribbon.

The Misses Betsy Thornton and Shirley Farrior, cousin of the groom, bridesmaids, and Miss Sandra Willis, sister of the bride, who was junior bridesmaid, wore matching gowns of green, lavender and yellow embroidered organdy and carried bouquets similar to the maid of honor's.

Miss Christi Willis, cousin of the bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Willis, of Norfolk, Va., was the flower girl and Ben Horton, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Horton, the ring bearer.

Mr. A. B. Vick was best man for his son and ushers were Jack Farrior, cousin of the groom from Farmville, A. T. Leary, jr., Waldron Bailey, III, and Richard Spears.
