Presbyterians Schedule Bible School Exercises
The daily vacation Bible school of the Presbyterian church will have closing exercises tonight at 7 p.m. A short program will be followed by the presentation of certificates. Parents and children are invited.
The school has been under the direction of Mrs. Dorothy Lewis Guthrie and 89 were registered during this week.

Gurganus - Guthrie
Married Saturday evening in the Franklin Memorial Methodist parsonage, Morehead City, were Miss Clara B. Guthrie and Clifton W. Gurganus of Beaufort.
Miss Guthrie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Guthrie and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Gurganus. Th Rev. A. L. Reynolds officiated.
The ceremony was performed at the same time the Basden sisters of Beaufort were married by Mr. Reynolds.

Mrs. Roy Hamilton Honors Mrs. Maxine Guthrie Davis
Mrs. Maxine Guthrie Davis, who is to be married June 17 to O. J. Morrow, was honored at a buffet dinner party Wednesday, June 4, given by Mrs. Roy Hamilton of Beaufort. Fifteen couples were present.
A table was decorated with a miniature bridal party dressed in the color scheme of Mrs. Davis' wedding, blue and yellow. The table was laden with gardenias and lighted tapers in the background.
The house was decorated with blue and white hydrangeas and gardenias. Mrs. Davis was given a pink carnation corsage by the hostess.
The dinner consisted of baked ham, string beans, yams, hot rolls and relishes. Blue cake with yellow ice cream and iced tea were served. After dinner pictures were taken of each couple. The women dressed in bridal veils and carried flowers for the pictures.

Mrs. Ann Willis Jones, John Gillikin Wed Saturday
Mrs. Ann Willis Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Willis and Mr. John Gillikin, formerly of Beaufort, now of Havelock, were united in marriage Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock in the Free Will Baptist church. The Rev. T. C. Smith officiated in the double ring ceremony.
The ceremony was performed before an altar banked with white gladioli. Miss Mary Emma Kirkman, organist, presented a program of nuptial music before the ceremony.
The bride, who entered the church with her only attendant, Mrs. R. G. Willis, was attired in a light blue nylon dress with white accessories. She had a corsage of red roses. Mrs. Willis was dressed in a silk print and had white carnations.
Best man for the groom was William Thomas of Beaufort. The couple left immediately following the ceremony for a two-week trip to the western part of the state. Upon their return they will be at home in Havelock.
The bride, who is a graduate of the Morehead City high school and commercial course, has been employed in the public works department at Cherry Point for 10 years. The groom, a veteran of the Air Force in world war II, is also employed at Cherry Point.
The pair were entertained at a cake cutting Friday night at the home of Mrs. Charles Conway, sister of the bride.

No Police Chief
Du Quoin, Ill., (AP)—Under a new deal this Southern Illinois city of 8,000 has only policemen—no chief. Their boss is the police commissioner who receives no more than his regular councilman's pay. He figured it would save the city $9,000 a year.
