Villagers Earn $66,000 On Tip from Temple God
Penang, Malaya (AP)—Jubilant villagers of Pulau Tikus in Penang celebrated with prayers and a seven-day Chinese drama after winning a total of $66,000 in a lottery from a tip from their temple god.

The god, through a temple medium, had advised them to back 54 as the winning number in an illegal lottery in conjunction with a horse race. On the eve of each race day hundreds of people crowd into temples and cemeteries to ask the aid of the gods and spirits in placing bets.

In Tasmania recently, fossilized chunks of trees believed to be five to ten million years old were unearthed by roadbuilding crews.

Sir Samuel Baker, British explorer, was appointed governor of African Sudan in the early 1870's by the Egyptian khedive.
