The Morehead City Eagles tested their new bus on their trip to Tarboro Friday night. This bus, painted red and white, was the prize for the winner of the Morehead-Beaufort game played Oct. 10. Another much coveted prize won that night was the Mullet Bucket, which the Sea Dogs of Beaufort will attempt to re-capture in the last game of the season.

Accompanying the team, in a chartered bus, were the Morehead City high school band members and majorettes, in snappy and colorful uniforms. The cheerleaders followed in cars.

Boys Night?

A TWIRP dance Tuesday night at the recreation center was sponsored by the FHA. TWIRP (meaning the woman is requested to pay), was easy night for the boys. The girls invited the boys, paid their way in, bought their refreshments and asked them to dance. In other words, the girls footed the bills the night of Nov. 4. The FHA cleared $28.50 from this dance. Novella Reid won the door prize and was crowned Queen of the evening. At intermission George Lillis sang three numbers and Jean Smoyer did a tap dance.

The American History class, Mrs. John Phillips teacher, climaxed a study of election issues and procedure with a visit to the polls on election day. They observed the voters going through the line and their questions were answered by Fred Lewis.

The Beta club met Tuesday afternoon for their regular meeting. The possibilities of establishing a Beta club at Newport were discussed. A committee, Mary Lou Norwood, Helen Willis and Ann Garner, was appointed to look into the matter: The meeting adjourned after a program on the meaning of the Beta club was presented by Annette Guthrie and Bernice Willis of Parkin.

Jimmy Willis, Jarvis Weeks, Bobby Willis and R. E. Willis.

Since the club attends church once a month in a body it was decided to attend the First Baptist church this Sunday morning. Mr. Paul Moore, guest speaker, gave a talk on engineering.

The club will give an oyster roast next Tuesday night for its new members. Tommy Oglesby, John Ballou and Jarvis Weeks were appointed to look after this. The meeting closed with the friendship circle.

The Morehead City chapter of the Future Homemakers of America is celebrating FHA week Nov. 2-8 with some activity each day. These activities emphasize the meaning of the organization.

Monday the club attended the county rally at Beaufort and had a rose ceremony, planted a rose bush on the lawn. Supper in the home economics department and a rally in the auditorium were included in the program. The highlight of the meeting was a discussion on the meaning of the marriage ceremony, given by the Rev. Leon Coch, pastor of the First Methodist church, Morehead City.

Tuesday night they sponsored the TWIRP dance. On Wednesday the members invited an inspection of their exhibit in the Spinning Wheel window. Thursday, members brought packages for the World Christmas festival, sharing the joy of Christmas with the boys and girls of other lands. Today is publicity day.

Tomorrow, family day, is when each member will do something for their family which will contribute to better family living. The chapter concludes the week by attending the Presbyterian church Sunday morning.
