Mother, Son Get Degrees

Carbondale, Ill. (AP)—Among those awarded bachelor degrees by Southern Illinois university recently were a mother and her son. Braxton Williams, 26, said his mother, Mrs. Corryne Williams, "worked hard to finish with me." Braxton supported his wife and three children while earning his degree. His mother taught school at Salem, Ill.

Missouri 'City' Hard to Miss

Carson City, Mo. (AP)—You won't find Carson City on the map but if you drive down Missouri highway 21 it's hard to miss despite its lack of people.

Metal signs boldly proclaim the unincorporated "city" with its population of three. Actually it is a restaurant run by Lester Carstens, 48, just 34 miles south of St. Louis. Carstens fought as an amateur under the ring name of "Kit Carson," and the name stuck when he entered business. He formed the "city" easily last December by simply placing a large sign on the building and smaller signs at the entrances.

Carstens said some neighbors have indicated they would like him to extend his "city limits," but he plans to limit it to his wife, Carol, their son, Keith, 18, and himself.

War Film Has Top Cast, Crew

If previous success has anything to do with the popularity of a motion picture, then Columbia Pictures' "Eight Iron Men" should be one of the biggest hits of the year. An unusual number of top-flight people are associated with the new Stanley Kramer production.

"Eight Iron Men" is Harry Brown's adaptation of his own Broadway stage success, "A Sound of Hunting," in which two unknown actors — Burt Lancaster and Frank Lovejoy — made their first bids for stardom.

Brown himself won an Oscar for his screenplay, "A Place in the Sun." Similarly, Edna and Edward Anhalt, associate producers of "Eight Iron Men," won an Academy Award for their original motion picture story, "Panic in the Streets."

Bonar Colleano, who makes his screen debut in "Eight Iron Men," played opposite Vivien Leigh in the London stage presentation of "A Streetcar Named Desire." Arthur Franz and Richard Kiley also played the famous Stanley Kowalski role, while Nick Dennis played Stanley's pal in both the Broadway and in Hollywood versions. Dick Moore is the former evil star of a score of triumphant films. Lee Marvin, James Griffith, Barney Phillips and Mary Castle, also featured in "Eight Iron Men," have been associated with several stage and screen hits and Edward Dmytryk, director of "Eight Iron Men," piloted "Crossfire," one of the greatest and most-honored films of all time.

Stanley Kramer, producer of "Eight Iron Men," is famous for such films as "Cyrano de Bergerac," "High Noon," "Champion," "The Happy Time," and "Death of a Salesman."

Mt. Fuji Volcano Expected To Erupt in Few Years

Tokyo (AP)—Japan's cone-shaped Mt. Fuji volcano, dormant for almost eight and a half centuries, probably will erupt in four or five years, says a Japanese geologist.

Professor Teruhiko Samejima of Shizuoka university based his forecast on a study of more than 90 major eruptions in Japanese islands over the past 1,300 years.

A spokesman of the government's Central Meteorological Observatory called Samejima's theory "interesting" without giving it full support. Fuji, south of Tokyo, is regarded by many Japanese as sacred. Thousands of pilgrims climb it every year.
